

Brownsville Independent School District

THE BEST CHOICE

The Special Services Family Center is a resource for families of students with disabilities ages 3 -21. Our goal is to build bridges between our schools and community.

- Connections with community agencies and other resources
- Educational and emotional support
- Ongoing Parent trainings
- Transition Planning

The center is staffed by a bilingual social worker and a behavior specialist. It is supported by staff from the district's Special Education Department. The center is designed to assist families in developing the communication, collaboration, and trust necessary to achieve positive outcomes for their students.
