

Love Advent

O Lord, you are God with us. Let this light be our watchful hope. Let it shine for all the world to see. May it find us ready to receive you, free of distractions, and prepared to welcome you into our hearts and lives. Through Christ, our Lord.

Especially to Mike Egan - Our Giving Tree Santa who has been coordinating the Giving Tree Outreach project for over 15 years! His Christmas Spirit has left a legacy of generosity and hope for all. This year over 500 gifts and three car loads of toys were collected for eight different organizations and several families.

Christmas, 2020

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Last Christmas, we never could have imagined that in just a couple months, our lives and our world would be forever changed by a global pandemic. In faith and love, we have striven to persevere through these difficulties. This year we have also been shaken once again by racial tensions in our nation. With trust in God, we continue to seek the transformation of our society, that it might more fully reflect God's Kingdom. Now, the celebration of Our Lord's birth renews us in the hope and peace that comes from him alone.

When we seek models of encouragement, especially in times of trial, we need look no further than the Holy Family. Mary and Joseph traveled a long and dangerous road to keep Jesus safe. They experienced exhaustion, and yet they remained strong in faith and trusted in God's plan for them.

As we celebrate this sacred season of Christmas, may we imitate Mary and Joseph and celebrate with reverence and joy the majesty and wonder of Christmas: "the Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us" (Jn 1:14). By taking on human flesh, he joined us in our earthly existence. Christ endured the pain, disappointment and struggle of this life but also sanctified those moments. This Christmas, may we become more fully a dwelling place of the Word by entrusting our challenges, crosses, and very lives to his infinite love and divine mercy. In him, we will find the strength and grace we need.

In this Christmas season, God invites us, through the words of St. Paul, to "let the peace of Christ control your hearts, the peace into which you were also called in one body" (Col 3:15). May we be instruments of his peace and compassion in a world that desperately needs the witness of our faith and unity. Let us encourage and support one another in faith with a renewed commitment to serve our brothers and sisters in most need, striving daily to imitate Christ.

It is my hope and prayer that Our Lord and Savior will bless you and your family with the peace that only he can give. May this precious gift be yours throughout the Christmas season and always.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Michael F. Burbidge
Bishop of Arlington

MAY YOU BE BLESSED! – It certainly has been a strange year, and our Christmas holidays are probably going to be quite different. It's difficult to let go of traditions.... I've had to do that myself this December and have come to understand that flexibility is the key to successful aging. However, some things never change! I'd like to share this blessing prayer with you hoping that these words will help you remember many positive things in life that are always present. We just need to become more aware of them. Thanks to Kate Nowak for the inspiration.

"May you be blessed with all things good. May your joys, like the stars at night, be too numerous to count. May every pathway you choose lead to that which is pure and good and lovely. May every doubt and fear be replaced by a deep abiding trust as you behold evidence of God's presence all around you. And when there is only darkness and the storms of life are closing in, may the light at the core of your being illuminate the world.

May you always be aware you are loved beyond measure, and may you be willing to love unconditionally in return.

May you always feel protected and cradled in the arms of God, like the cherished child you are.

And when you are tempted to judge, may you be reminded that we are all ONE and that every thought you think reverberates across the universe, touching everyone and everything. And when you are tempted to hold back, may you remember that love flows best when it flows freely, and it is in giving that we receive the greatest gifts.

May you always have music and laughter, and may a rainbow follow every storm. May gladness wash away every disappointment, may joy dissolve every sorrow, and may love ease every pain. May every wound bring wisdom and every trial bring triumph, and with each passing day, may you live more abundantly than the day before."

Friends, may you be blessed, and may others be blessed by you. This is my heartfelt wish for you this Christmas season.... that you may be blessed. Merry Christmas!

ELDER WISDOM – I don't have to chase extraordinary moments to find happiness – it's right in front of me if I'm paying attention and practicing gratitude. (Brene Brown)
