

SPRING SEMESTER 2020-21
IMPORTANT DATES FOR JANUARY RETURN (revised 1/3/21)

January 11	Quiet period officially begins; all members of the community limit their risk of virus exposure for at least 10 days leading up to campus return
January 13	Deadline for families to submit decision for in-person or remote learning option
January 13–15	All boarding and day students undergo first round of COVID-19 PCR testing at a facility close to home; results must be submitted to Health Center by January 20 (rapid antigen test results will not be accepted) Local area students have the option to have their first PCR test administered by Canterbury's Health Center; costs will be billed through insurance/at family's expense
	January 12 7:00–9:00 PM January 13 9:00–11:00 AM
January 18	Martin Luther King Jr. Day programming (details to be announced); kick-off of Social Justice Series
January 19 - 20	Day students undergo second round of PCR testing; students have the option to test at a facility close to home or on campus through Canterbury's Health Center offered (in the library) on the following schedule: January 19 7:00–9:00 PM January 20 9:00–11:00 AM
January 20	Results of first PCR testing due to Health Center Boarding students (domestic and international) return to campus and proceed directly to the library upon arrival; move-in hours between 9:00 AM–4:00 PM Second round of PCR testing for boarding students administered upon arrival Quarantine period begins for all students and remains in effect until results of second PCR tests are returned; boarding students quarantine on campus, and day students quarantine at home
January 21-22	Spring semester begins with remote access for all students
January 24	Results of second PCR test must be received by Health Center; day students who opted to have second test administered at an off-campus facility must submit results before end of day Quarantine will be extended for any student whose test results are delayed
January 25	First day of in-person classes scheduled to begin
January 29	All boarding and day students undergo third round of PCR testing; no quarantine required while awaiting results
February 1 (week of)	Surveillance testing protocol begins