Redo/another chance

Have you ever asked a child to do something and the outcome isn't exactly as expected? Immediately they will ask... Can I do it again? Give me another chance, please.

The events of our days, at times come with haste and we are caught unprepared, wishing we had acted differently or could be given a chance for a "do-over" Our Lord, merciful and kind, has given us just that. He allows, even better; he invites and desires for us to come to him to get that second chance. He calls us to share our misses and our flaws in times that we had hoped we would have acted differently. That do-over is waiting for us in the sacrament of reconciliation. Acknowledging, letting go, and receiving the grace to begin again. Therefore, the next time you are involved in a situation and are unhappy with your response, remember that Christ is wiping the slate clean and giving you that second chance that you so desired.

Walking with Moms in Need
a year of service

Pregnant and parenting moms in need are in our parishes and our neighborhoods. As Pope Francis reminds us, our parishes need to be "islands of mercy in the midst of the sea of indifference." Everyone in our parish community should know where to refer a pregnant woman in need. In order to assess, expand, and better communicate resources to local pregnant moms and families in need, our parish is joining a nationwide effort entitled: "Walking with Moms in Need: A Year of Service." We invite all parishioners to join us as we embark on this Year of Service. For more information, and to ensure you receive news and updates, please contact: Adriana Sosa at adriana\_sosa@plastecusa.com or 786-493-3067.

A Prayer for Life

Father and maker of all,
you adorn all creation
with splendor and beauty,
and fashion human lives
in your image and likeness.
Awaken in every heart
reverence for the work of your hands,
and renew among your people
a readiness to nurture and sustain your precious gift of life.
Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God forever and ever.

Amen.

BULLETIN

... but every issue is not equal.

- Issues that directly affect human lives, such as abortion and euthanasia, are fundamental and demand serious consideration.
- Our Constitution heralds religious liberty in the First Amendment, yet increasingly people of faith are having to fight to retain this basic right.
- Our nation has redefined marriage. The marriage of a man and a woman is the foundation of the family and an essential core element of a flourishing society.
- The growing disparity between rich and poor means most of the world's resources are in the hands of a small percentage of its people. The federal budget is a moral document and we prioritize the poorest and most vulnerable among us.
- The millions of undocumented persons living in the United States deserve our compassion. Our immigration system is broken, and we need a humane solution to it.
- War, terror, and violence have caused thousands of lost lives. We must work for just solutions to conflict in the Holy Land, throughout the Middle East, and beyond.

As Catholic citizens, we should remember three things:

1. Respect for the dignity of each person is the core of Catholic social and moral teaching. This is our most basic principle.
2. We focus on the common good, not our own personal interests. We ask, how can we make the world a better place? Not, how can I improve my own personal situation?
3. We have a responsibility, a true obligation, to form our consciences and participate in the civic life of this nation.

Here are ways to form our consciences and participate in civic life:

- Be true to the teachings of the Church. Read Scripture, the Catechism of the Catholic Church, teachings from the Holy See, and the statements of our bishops. Read "Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship" at faithfulcitizenship.org. We need to be sure that our reasoning and judgments are well-grounded in our faith.
- Stay well-informed about issues through judicious and reasoned engagement with the immense world of information in the 21st century. Just as all issues are not equal, all sources are not equal. For example, an individual's blog, while potentially very insightful, may not have the same fidelity to factual truth as our media sources that hold themselves to professional standards of journalistic ethics, imperfect though they are.
- Remain in contact with our representatives in local, state, and federal government. Our responsibility to form our consciences leads to an obligation to be active citizens.
- Engage in reasoned, compassionate, and loving dialogue with others, Catholics and non-Catholics alike, about the issues and choices that we are facing as a nation. Remember that we are all called first to witness the Gospel, and through that witness, to share our social teaching to highlight the moral dimensions of issues, and to participate in debate on public policy.
