Dear parish family,

I hope this letter finds you well as we begin our summer season.

As another academic year closes, we give thanks to God for all his blessings. In faith we know that our good Lord is always walking in our midst and comes to console us when we need him the most.

I would like to share with all of you an important piece of news that pertains to our church and school. If you recall, last year, our school was reaccredited with very high marks. One of the recommendations that was made was to look into strengthening its operational and fiscal future by hiring a Director of Institutional Advancement. Given that we have many projects for the future of our school and church, I decided, in consultation with the archdiocese, to establish a new position called Director of Development/Institutional Advancement for Blessed Trinity Church and School.

Given that Mrs. Perez has been such an outstanding principal during the last 18 years, I offered this position to her, and she accepted. Mrs. Debbie Ayash will be assuming the role of interim principal during the next academic year. I am happy to welcome Mrs. Ayash to this position as she continues the vision with the programs and successful initiatives that have been implemented. The school is in a great place, and I am very proud of the excellent work Mrs. Perez accomplished. In fact, our school has become a model for individualized instruction and the creation of 21st century learning, and I am confident that with Mrs. Ayash's leadership the school will continue to thrive.

Please pray for both Mrs. Perez and Mrs. Ayash as they transition to their new roles. Know of my prayers for each of you and your families. I wish you a blessed, restful summer. I look forward to the continued advancement that our school and church will be blessed with.

As I pray for you, I humbly ask you to pray for me.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. José N. Alfaro

Querida familia parroquial:

Espero que esta carta los encuentre bien en el comienzo de esta temporada de verano.

Ahora que el año académico ha concluido, le damos gracias a Dios por todas sus bendiciones. En fe sabemos que nuestro buen Señor siempre camina en medio de nosotros y viene a consolarnos cuando más lo necesitamos.

Quisiera compartir con Uds. una noticia importante sobre nuestra escuela y parroquia. El año pasado, la escuela fue reacreditada con altos honores. Una de las recomendaciones que nos hicieron fue contratar un Director de Desarrollo Institucional. Debido a que tenemos muchos proyectos para el futuro de la escuela y de la parroquia, decidí, después de haber consultado con la arquidiócesis, establecer una nueva posición llamada Director de Desarrollo y de Avance Institucional de la escuela y parroquia de Blessed Trinity.

Dado que Mrs. Pérez ha hecho un trabajo tan excelente como Directora durante los últimos 18 años, le ofrecí la posición a ella, y la ha aceptado. Por lo tanto, Mrs. Debbie Ayash tomará la posición provisional de Directora durante el próximo año académico. Le damos la bienvenida a Mrs. Ayash en esta nueva posición a través de la cual podrá continuar la visión de los programas e iniciativas exitosas que ya se han implementado. Nuestra escuela está en una posición muy buena, y estoy muy orgulloso del excelente trabajo que Mrs. Perez ha hecho. De hecho, nuestra escuela se ha convertido en un modelo de instrucción individualizada como lugar de aprendizaje del siglo 21, y estoy seguro que con el liderazgo de Mrs. Ayash la escuela continuará floreciendo.

Les pido que por favor oren tanto por Mrs. Perez como por Mrs. Ayash durante este tiempo de transición. Cuenten siempre con mis oraciones por Uds. y sus familias. Les deseo un verano de descanso y lleno de bendiciones. Espero con entusiasmo las bendiciones de Dios por el avance continuo de la escuela y la iglesia.

A la vez que oro por Uds., les pido humildemente que oren por mí.

En Cristo Jesús,

P. José N. Alfaro
