As we bid farewell to Father Yamil, we welcome and get to know Father Pawel Duda!

I was born on January 27th, 1973 in Limanowa, Poland. I have three younger sisters: Barbara, Urszula, and Agatha. My mother Anna was a polish literature teacher and school and is now retired. My father Zdzislaw was a construction worker and passed away. I grew up in a beautiful little village in the Beskidy mountains. In 1992 I joined Major Seminary in Tarnow, Poland, where in 1998 I earned a master's degree in theology. I was ordained on May 30th, 1998 in the diocese of Tarnow, Poland. I was assigned as a hospital chaplain and associate pastor at two parishes in Poland. In 2001 I was sent to Catholic University of John Paul II in Lublin, Poland where in 2006 I earned a doctoral degree in Christian Ethics. In the meantime, I was sent on a one-year assignment as associate pastor in Swindon, England.

I came to the USA in 2007 as a Moral Theology Instructor at SS. Cyril & Methodius Seminary in Orchard Lake, MI, and Sacred Heart Major Seminary in Detroit, MI. In 2011 I began my next assignments as an associate pastor and parish administrator in the diocese of St. Augustin, FL.

During the years 2012 – 2016 I completed doctoral studies in philosophy at Pontifical University of John Paul II in Cracow, Poland. In 2014 I was sent to serve as a hospital chaplain in New York. In 2016 I started my ministry in the Archdiocese of Miami as associate pastor at San Isidro Catholic Mission, and as Moral Theology Instructor at St. Vincent de Paul Regional Seminary in Boynton Beach, in a preparation program for permanent deacons.

I am interested in theology, philosophy and cognitive sciences. My hobbies are reading books, hiking and cooking.
