SAAM is five! From having special seating at the 5:00 PM Vigil Mass on Saturday, to having the honor of bringing up the gifts at the Offertory and all members going forward and gathering around Father Alfaro, to having some of our members sing in the choir, to enjoying food and laughter at a local restaurant afterwards ... SAAM showed once again it really knows how to celebrate! After all, it was its fifth anniversary!

We invite and encourage you to mark May 12th (always the second Saturday of the month) and plan to join this happy group for good food and fellowship. There will be more details in later bulletins. In the meantime, . save the date. We hope you'll become part of this Social Active Adult Ministry as we embark on year six! Give SAAM a try! We think you'll like us!

Our very own Shepherd, who knows his flock and leads us spiritually to our Father in Heaven.
