Because of you we are educating future generations!

The Archdiocese of Miami has robustly participated in the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People since its inception over 15 years ago and has been in compliance every year. This can only happen with the dedication of pastors, principals, directors and coordinators of religious education, administration and staff in collaboration with parents and volunteers.

Tips for Protecting Children and the Vulnerable

The residual effects of having been abused can last a lifetime. The sense of violation goes deep into a person's psyche and feelings of anger, shame, hurt and betrayal can build long after the abuse has taken place. Those who have been abused can heal, but it often takes time, therapy, and the support of loved ones.

Feeling heard leads toward healing. Relief from hurt and anger often comes when one feels heard, when one's pain and concerns are taken seriously, and a victim/survivor's appropriate sense of rage and indignation are acknowledged. Florida Abuse Hotline: 1-800-96-ABUSE (1-800-962-2873) Archdiocese of Miami Victim's Assistance Coordinator: 1-866-80-ABUSE (1-866-802-2873)

La Arquidiócesis de Miami ha participado vigorosamente en la Carta para la Protección de Niños y Jóvenes de la Conferencia de Obispos Católicos de los Estados Unidos desde su creación hace más de 15 años, y ha cumplido con la misma cada año. Esto es posible gracias a la dedicación de párrocos, directores escolares, directores y coordinadores de educación religiosa, administración y personal, en colaboración con padres y voluntarios.

Consejos para Proteger a los Niños y los Vulnerables

Los efectos residuales del abuso pueden durar toda la vida. La sensación de violación entra en la psique de una persona, y los sentimientos de ira, vergüenza, dolor y traición pueden acumularse mucho después de que el abuso haya sucedido. Quienes han sufrido abuso pueden sanar, pero a menudo toma tiempo, terapia y el apoyo de los seres queridos.

Sentirse escuchado conduce hacia la sanación. El alivio del daño y la ira a menudo se produce cuando uno se siente escuchado, cuando el dolor y las preocupaciones se toman en serio, y se reconoce el sentimiento apropiado de rabia e indignación que tiene la víctima/sobreviviente.
