... That proper church etiquette states that the Priest is the last to arrive and the first to leave? We should try to follow this during the Lenten season, so it becomes a habit. Let us arrive early and be in our pews ready when the Priest enters in the procession and stay in our pews until Father gives us the final blessing, exits, and the cantor has finished singing the recessional song.

Dr. Ian Murphy

Dr. Ian Murphy has had a stirring journey into Christianity out of agnosticism. His subsequent ministry to reach other skeptics with the Gospel unexpectedly rocketed to public attention when his valedictorian speech about Jesus made headlines nationwide, inspiring a Congressional Law from the desk of Senator Arlen Specter. This momentum landed Ian into the position of head pastor at a Baptist church in Texas, where his ministry remained centered until his decision to enter the Catholic Church. Shifting career direction, Ian completed his Ph.D. in Theology at Duquesne University with a dissertation on the New Evangelization. As a professor, he has taught religious studies at Indiana University of Pennsylvania, Penn State, Rosemont College, and Duquesne, and currently serves as a professor on faculty at Divine Mercy University.

Aside from teaching, Ian's ministry has continued through regular appearances on the Familyland Television Network, as well as three seasons hosting his own radio broadcast on 105.1 FM out of Indiana, Pennsylvania. In 2014, Ian delivered his conversion story as a keynote address to the Defending the Faith Conference held at the Franciscan University of Steubenville, Ohio, with an introduction by Dr. Scott Hahn, who designated Ian a Senior Fellow of the St. Paul Center for Biblical Theology. He has also been featured on the EWTN's Journey Home program, Sirius XM Satellite Radio's The Catholic Channel, and on Franciscan University Presents for the 2017 Lenten season.

Ian currently resides near Charleston, SC with his wife Rachel.
