The importance of our posture and behavior during the reading of the Gospel during mass? The Gospel is read by an ordained minister, the deacon, or, when no deacon is present, by a priest; the Book of the Gospels is carried aloft with honor in the entrance procession or is placed on the altar until the Gospel reading to show the unity of Scripture and Eucharist. The table of the Word and the table of the Christ's body and blood. Just before the Gospel is read the Gospel book is carried in procession to the ambo to the accompaniment of an acclamation sung by the people; it may be incensed before the reading and is kissed at its conclusion. Finally, all stand as the Gospel is proclaimed. Through this posture and through the honor paid to the book containing the Gospel, the Church pays homage to Christ who is present in his Word and who proclaims his Gospel. This is why it is so important to stay standing, refrain from leaving the pews and keep silent during the Gospel Readings.

Dr. Ian Murphy

Dr. Ian Murphy has had a stirring journey into Christianity out of agnosticism. His subsequent ministry to reach other skeptics with the Gospel unexpectedly rocketed to public attention when his valedictorian speech about Jesus made headlines nationwide, inspiring a Congressional Law from the desk of Senator Arlen Specter. This momentum landed Ian into the position of head pastor at a Baptist church in Texas, where his ministry remained centered until his decision to enter the Catholic Church. Shifting career direction, Ian completed his Ph.D. in Theology at Duquesne University with a dissertation on the New Evangelization. As a professor, he has taught religious studies at Indiana University of Pennsylvania, Penn State, Rosemont College, and Duquesne, and currently serves as a professor on faculty at Divine Mercy University.

Aside from teaching, Ian's ministry has continued through regular appearances on the Familyland Television Network, as well as three seasons hosting his own radio broadcast on 105.1 FM out of Indiana, Pennsylvania. In 2014, Ian delivered his conversion story as a keynote address to the Defending the Faith Conference held at the Franciscan University of Steubenville, Ohio, with an introduction by Dr. Scott Hahn, who designated Ian a Senior Fellow of the St. Paul Center for Biblical Theology. He has also been featured on the EWTN's Journey Home program, Sirius XM Satellite Radio's The Catholic Channel, and on Franciscan University Presents for the 2017 Lenten season.

Ian currently resides near Charleston, SC with his wife Rachel.

We had an eventful February here at Blessed Trinity! We celebrated an Ecumenical prayer service, with our neighboring Pastors. We celebrated Valentine's Day with a couples evening and received the great blessing of the gift of our very own Lady of Fatima statue from very generous parishioners.
