“The seed sown among thorns is the one who hears the word but then the cares of the world and the lure of riches choke the word and it bears no fruit.” - MATTHEW 13:22

Are you so caught up in worldly activities that you have no time for God? Does the lure of riches and material goods choke God out of your life? Stewardship is a lifestyle to be lived every day. It effects all the decisions we make. What we receive at Mass every Sunday should be shared with others every day of the week.

La semilla sembrada entre espinas es la que oye la palabra, pero entonces las preocupaciones del mundo y la atracción de las riquezas ahogan la palabra y no da fruto.” - MATEO 13:22

¿Estás tan atrapado en actividades mundanas que no tienes tiempo para Dios? El engaño de las riquezas y los bienes materiales mantienen a Dios fuera de tu vida? La corresponsabilidad es un estilo de vida que se debe vivir cada día. Afecta todas las decisiones que tomamos. Lo que recibimos en la misa todos los domingos debe ser compartido con otros todos los días de la semana.

GIFT BEARERS

If a Sunday Mass is offered for one of your loved ones, the ushers will be happy to designate you as the gift bearers. Simply make sure that you arrive at least 15 minutes prior to the beginning of Mass before they have picked anyone else and be sure to dress appropriately.
(ie: covered shoulders, no shorts or tank tops, etc.)

The Convocation of Catholic Leaders: The Joy of the Gospel in America

The convocation, years in planning, was the first time in a century that the bishops convened church leaders — clergy, seminarians, parish volunteers and professional to respond to social and spiritual quandaries people drifting on the margins of society.

Our very own Father Alfaro and parishioners Willie and Desiree Cueto, attended this convocation, a historic gathering of some 3,000 lay and religious leaders from 160 dioceses and 185 national organizations. They all gathered to explore the current challenges and strengths of the Church and its evangelization efforts. The Convocation was dedicated to the Blessed Mother while constantly seeking the guidance of the Holy Spirit. It has been the only response to Pope Francis' Evangelii Gaudium on the national level, according to organizers. The event marked a first in U.S. Church history.

When interviewed by the Florida Catholic, Willie Cueto said “The convocation has been a chance to identify the opportunities and challenges we have today, and we have more than we need to be witnesses and evangelizers in our cultures. Our Church’s message of life and hope is attractive and powerful, and it begins with marriage and family.” After attending a session dealing with often hostile social and media climate and political incivility, Cueto said “We already have plenty of people who are ready to listen, but they are not hearing our message as passionately as they should. We are given our call, mission and purpose to give hope to the world and to relieve suffering, but we are sometimes too divided among ourselves.”

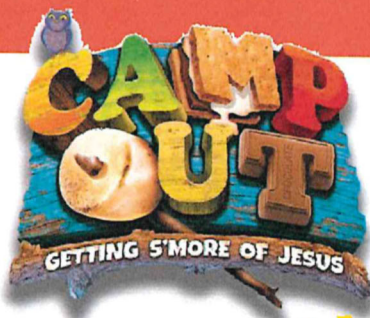

Thank you for representing our Blessed Trinity Family!

Thank you to the anonymous parishioner that replaced our worn out flag in front of the Parish Office with a new one, to celebrate 4th of July. He was caught in this beautiful act by Julie Kelly! Thank you for taking pride in your Parish Home!!!

First session begins July 17th

Session 1:
July 17th-21st

Session 2:
