

Block Representation

Curious

- Addresses our desire to have student experience and learning that will help them in an ever-changing world
- Inspire the desire to learn and dig deep

Connected

- Addresses communicating with and working together with our community that includes students, staff, parents and the residents of ROCORI
- Work together with and develop new community partnerships

Progressive

- Addresses working collaboratively with staff, students and community to be ready for anything.
- Technology as a tool in learning will continue to expand
- Addresses classroom environments, spaces and sizes, professional growth and facility needs.
- Addresses the need to be looking to and planning for the future