

Lower School
Teacher Vacancies
2020-21

The International School of Indiana is seeking the following long term substitute teaching position in the Lower School for the remainder of the 2020-21 school year with the potential to turn into a permanent position for the 2021-22 school year:

- Lower School French Teacher

Responsible for developing and teaching French language and literature curriculum in the Lower School classroom; contributing to school programs and events; collaborating with colleagues; creating positive educational climate for students; participating in professional development; tutoring students individually as needed; establishing and communicating clear objectives for all learning activities; and communicating with parents in a positive and timely manner.

The successful candidate will be a native speaker of the French Language and responsible for teaching Units of Inquiry, math and language in an immersion program.

Candidates should hold a degree in Education, a current teaching license and have prior experience with the PYP. Preference will go to educators with international teaching experience.

Qualified candidates should apply immediately. We will review applications as they arrive, and will shortlist, interview and offer at the earliest opportunity.

Apply by email to resumes@isind.org, with 'Application for LS French Teaching Position' in the subject line. Include letter of application, resume, contact details for three professional referees and links to any digital media featuring your work with students.
