PHILOSOPHY

Trinity-Pawling's lacrosse program is designed to prepare each player for the rigors of college and life thereafter. Regular meetings and an ongoing dialogue with the coaching staff help to ensure that each boy is meeting his academic, athletic, and personal potential. In every conceivable way, Pride lacrosse players are prepared for the college ranks as students, players, and men of consequence.

HISTORY

Sixty Trinity-Pawling student-athletes in the past five years have moved on to top NCAA Division I, II, and III levels of college lacrosse. The Pride finished the 2016 season ranked in the top ten of USA Today's High School Sports Ranking (New England). The Pride has had nine players named to the All-Founders League and All-Western New England teams.

LEAGUE

The Pride competes in the Founders League, which consists of Avon, Choate, Hotchkiss, Kent, Loomis, Taft, and Westminster. The Pride also plays in the very competitive New England West 1 Division against fellow members Deerfield, Salisbury, Brunswick, Berkshire, Northfield Mt. Hermon, and all Founders League members. Other rivals are Albany Academy, Gunnery, Millbrook, and Canterbury.

FACILITIES

- David N. Coratti Field - home of Trinity-Pawling lacrosse is one of the top playing venues in New England; state-of-the-art lacrosse equipment; a full lifting program; film and opponent scout study.
- Smith Field House - opened in 2017
- Schreiber Weight Room - renovated in 2014
- Pride Locker Room - renovated in 2013

FACULTY

Head Varsity Coach Andrew Kirkaldy joined Trinity-Pawling in 2017. Kirkaldy played for the Nanaimo Timberman of the Western Lacrosse Association, and was named the team's unsung hero in 2009. He then played NCAA lacrosse with Gordon College from 2006-2010. Kirkaldy also played for the Boston Rockhoppers of the NALL before moving to a coaching position with Gordon College. Kirkaldy was named Merrimack Valley Conference Coach of the Year in 2012. He also serves as Associate Director of Admission.

Assistant Varsity Coach Taylor Pirie is a graduate of Middlebury College, where he was a four-year member of the varsity lacrosse team. Pirie teaches Economics and Mathematics, and coaches soccer and lacrosse.

Assistant Varsity Coach Christopher Gillman '05 captained the 2009 Western New England University hockey team. He joined the Pride faculty in 2011 and serves as Dean of the Senior Class, coaches lacrosse and hockey, and teaches English.
