Message from the Leadership Team

Families,

It has been such a joy celebrating holiday spirit week with our Sparks this week. We are proud of the ways that our students have demonstrated passion, energy, and joy as they engage in social-emotional learning, academic content, and in building relationships with their teachers and classmates. We hope you enjoy your holiday season, stay safe, and we will see you all in January.

Front Office Information

Front office will be closed from Friday December 18th at 4:00pm thru Monday, January 4th at 8:00am.

Family Corner

Dear NCE Sparks Families,
Wishing everyone a very Happy Holidays and a Happy New Year!!! Please stay safe and stay healthy! Just a reminder to complete the Student Daily Health Check on Monday, January 4th 2021. School will be back in session on Tuesday, January 5, 2021. During the holidays, if your child experiences any symptoms related to COVID-19, please seek medical care. (Some symptoms to monitor - fever, chills, cough, shortness of breath, sore throat, muscle pain, loss of taste or smell, nausea/vomit, fatigue, or headache)

Student Support Counselor Corner

Hello Sparks families, my name is Marianny Santana and I am the Special Education Manager for North Central Elementary. I have had the great opportunity of meeting many of our families and students! I would like to remind families that if you have any questions regarding supports for your student here at NCE please reach out to me via email and we can schedule a time to speak based off of your concerns. Our special education program helps ALL students be successful here at NCE all the way from Speech therapy to academic supports. My email address is Marianny.Santana@yesprep.org.
