

Robert and Elizabeth Vingi
Porter-Gaud Parents

"Our entire family has benefited immensely from its association with Porter-Gaud School. Our three sons have thrived here from first grade through graduation. We have shared the pride of the school's singular advancements through the past twenty years, and are confident her best days lie ahead. Charleston also benefits greatly from the presence of Porter-Gaud. The school's traditions of excellence create a benchmark for her peers, a path for opportunity for those young people willing to pursue it, and a legacy of giving back from its accomplished graduates. We are delighted and humbled to give back in any way we can."