

THE DELBARTON FUND

2020-2021

The Delbarton Fund is an essential, strategic resource that funds both anticipated budget items and unanticipated emergency needs that must be answered. Together, tuition and the Delbarton Fund are the foundation for everything that makes Delbarton unique. A robust Delbarton Fund allows the school to respond swiftly to new challenges in extraordinary times, including: increased financial aid requests; additional technology, health and safety resources; and expanded faculty development, training, and innovation. As we endeavor to address current needs and plan for an uncertain future, the Delbarton Fund empowers Delbarton to “grow back stronger.”

There are many ways to make your gift meaningful.

Greatest Need: Supports Delbarton's top priorities throughout the year. By entrusting Delbarton with a gift in this unrestricted category, you empower the School to respond to issues and opportunities across campus—whatever they are and whenever they arise. This year, that has meant tools, technology, and equipment to implement Virtual Delbarton and the return to on-campus classes this Fall; and compensation for faculty and staff COVID-related childcare expenses this school year.

Give a Boy a Year: Funds a financial aid budget of $3.47 million this year. This means Delbarton is able to offer aid to 21.48% of the student body (136 students). The Give a Boy a Year program helps take economics out of the decision to attend Delbarton. This year, the Delbarton Fund has been tasked not only with funding the annual financial aid budget but also providing over $140,000 in emergency Covid-19 related financial aid requests.

Faculty and Staff Development: Provides competitive salaries, benefits, and professional development opportunities to attract a distinguished faculty who immerse themselves in the Delbarton experience, not just as teachers but as coaches, counselors, moderators, and mentors. With an 85 member faculty, Delbarton is able to offer a low 7:1 student-teacher ratio.

Arts, Athletics and Student Activities: Supports students in the studio, on the stage, on the field, in the gym, and beyond. By funding the additional budgetary needs of arts, athletics, and activities, Delbarton ensures students and their parents are able to focus completely on the experience. Over $180,000 in supplementary budgetary support for arts programs, sports teams, and clubs and organizations takes the fundraising burden off of booster groups and activity participants.

Your Delbarton Fund participation matters most.

Distinct from fundraising for long-term strategic priorities for the school or Abbey, all contributions to the Delbarton Fund are spent in the year they are raised, meaning Delbarton students benefit from your generosity immediately. Every gift, no matter the size, directly impacts each student's Delbarton experience right now.
