Birth Certificate:

Under Utah Code 53A-11-501 to 503 schools are required to have proof of the identity of a student who is registering in the school for the first time. The requirement of the law is for the parent or the legal guardian to produce a valid birth certificate as proof that the child is who the parent or guardian says he or she is.

Driver's License Size Birth Certificates are no longer considered legal documents. If you do not have a copy of your child's birth certificate, you may obtain one from the following address:
