

CE Adult Roles & Financial Literacy

This class covers all the essentials of managing your life as an adult. In this class we learn about values, goals, education & careers, communication, relationships & dating, mate selection, engagement, marriage, money management, and parenting.

It is the best class you will ever take!!!

This class counts as 3 classes and you get your General Financial Literacy Credit (required for graduation)!

- * CTE Credit

- * General Financial Literacy Credit

- * CE Credit (3 Credits) from Weber State University (CHF SS/DV 2400 Family Relations)

We participate in a variety of learning experiences: group activities, games, and project-based learning...including the empathy belly.
