

Seminar Overview

Learn Well, Live Well, Lead Well Seminar ("Seminar") is a comprehensive 3-12 integrated, interdisciplinary curriculum that directly addresses the school-wide goals and competencies that embrace Holton's institutional priorities of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion, Health and Wellbeing and Global Education. While in Seminar, students will engage in learning opportunities designed to further develop their knowledge, skills, and habits of mind addressing the following goals and competencies:

- Physical and Emotional Health
- Self-Knowledge and Identity
- Open-mindedness and Perspective Taking
- Communication, Collaboration, and Community Building
- Creative and Critical Thinking
- Curiosity, Knowledge, and Discernment
- Local, National and Global Engagement
- Social Justice

Learn Well, Live Well, Lead Well Seminar is housed in the Office of Diversity, Wellbeing, and Global Education and is currently running in grades 3, 4, 5,7,8, 9, and 10 and will run in grades 3-11 next year. See the LW3 Seminar curriculum overview here.

LW3 Seminar Teachers Include:

3rd Grade	Host Teachers Include: Rachel Helming & Nan Smith
4th Grade	Teachers include: Christy Diefenderfer, Rachel Helming, Cami Roth, Jacquie Fernandes, Maureen Siburt, Toni Henderson
5th Grade	Teachers Include: Rachel Helming, Maureen Siburt, Stephanie Cordo, Cami Roth
6th Grade	Teachers Include: TBD
7th Grade	Teachers Include: Kristen Edma, Carrie Braun
8th Grade	Teachers Include: Stephanie Cordo, Kristen Edma, Carrie Braun
9th Grade	Teachers Include: Stephanie Cordo, Yolanda Keener, Emily Wilde, Julie Treadwell, Maureen Siburt, Lucia Piacenza
10th Grade	Teachers include: Trevor Fanning, Lucia Piacenza, Stephanie Cordo, Emily Wilde, Nina Gilman
11th Grade:	Teachers Include: TBD