This is a fun workshop for incoming band students. Participants will learn the basics of playing their selected band instrument and will conclude with their very first performance! This workshop is highly recommended for incoming band students who are starting band for the first time or new to their instrument. This will give students a head start for the upcoming year in band.

PREREQUISITE: Instrument rental needed

StageStruck Jr. is a musical theatre day camp. The students are trained in several areas: singing, dancing, acting, and improv. The purpose of StageStruck is to provide a creative atmosphere for students to stretch and "try their wings" in the performing arts. At the end of the camp, the students will present an original show.

ADDITIONAL INFO: Please bring a sack lunch, binder, laundry basket, water bottle, pencil and highlighter.

FINAL PERFORMANCE: Friday, August 9 at 7:00 PM

CAMP T-SHIRT: Included in camp price
