Communication Corner

Quick tips for all of us busy parents to help connect with our children and open the line of healthy communication:

- Pause the distractions- put down our phones & computers, turn down the TV or radio and give our kids our undivided attention.
- Show genuine interest in what they are saying.
- Try to see the perspective from which they are coming.
- Use "opening doors" statements (see this link for more info: LINK)

WAY Academy of Flint

Hello, WAY Families,

Happy New Year! 2020 was quite a different year that brought about new challenges, new opportunities, and some extreme highs and lows for some families. We are very proud of our students' resilience this past year with all of the life changes. We are looking forward to this new year and the new growth and connections it will bring.
