Why Campbell?

Campbell College is a unique place. Set in a stunning 100-acre woodland campus on the edge of Belfast it is accessible from all corners of the world with regular flights into the two local airports, Belfast City Airport and Belfast International Airport.

Home to over 150 boarders from 30 different countries, our diverse and unique boarding family is a tight-knit community that nurtures individuals by working in close partnership with parents and pupils. With 125 years of experience in educating boys, we are experts in our field. Combine this expertise in teaching with a superb campus and a welcoming, inclusive and connected community and you start to understand the essence of this wonderful College.

Why Boarding?

Boarding builds independence, confidence and forges friendships that last a lifetime. Our dedicated boarding team ensure that no pupil is invisible, nurturing individual development as part of a close-knit boarding family. Boarding can be a transformative experience enabling boys to fulfil their potential. The structured environment is important, especially for boys, and the added access to teaching staff beyond school hours can support improved academic performance. Wider boarding life is an enriching experience as pupils learn from the international family that surrounds them on a day to day basis. Our boarding staff go the extra mile to ensure that each and every boy makes the most of the incredible opportunities afforded through a boarding school education at Campbell.
