PRIDE IN EXCELLENCE

Collaboration and learning with your peers is an integral part of RCS remote and virtual learning. Follow these tips to help guide you into a more successful group experience.

Treat each other with dignity and respect

Align group roles and responsibilities with individual strengths and interests.

Create a schedule. Identify what project activities must be accomplished, in what order, and by when.

Communication is key. Establish clear guidelines around when and how your group will communicate with each other.

Schedule extra virtual meetings closer to project deadlines to address any last minute tasks.

HAVING TROUBLE WORKING IN GROUPS?

Always be honest, but respectful, in a group. Speak up and share your concerns about the project or responsibilities with your group members.

Reach out to your teacher if you have any questions or concerns about your group or project.
