(Opposite Page) Bob Barrett, awarded membership in NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY, receives GOLD CIRCLE AWARD.

Academic excellence, the theme of Brother Fred's administration and the aim of the entire Vianney faculty, demands, on the part of the student, character, scholarship, leadership, and service. In the formal setting of the classroom and in the informal atmosphere outside the classroom—both enlivened by family spirit—the Griffin finds ample opportunity to achieve these goals. Typifying student response to the challenge of academic excellence, Bob Barrett, Gerry Hines, Jack Breihan, John Cova, John Settich, Tom Knapko, and Bob Myers accept their awards.

SPORTS

Hopes surge as Vianney overcomes "mighty" Althoff.

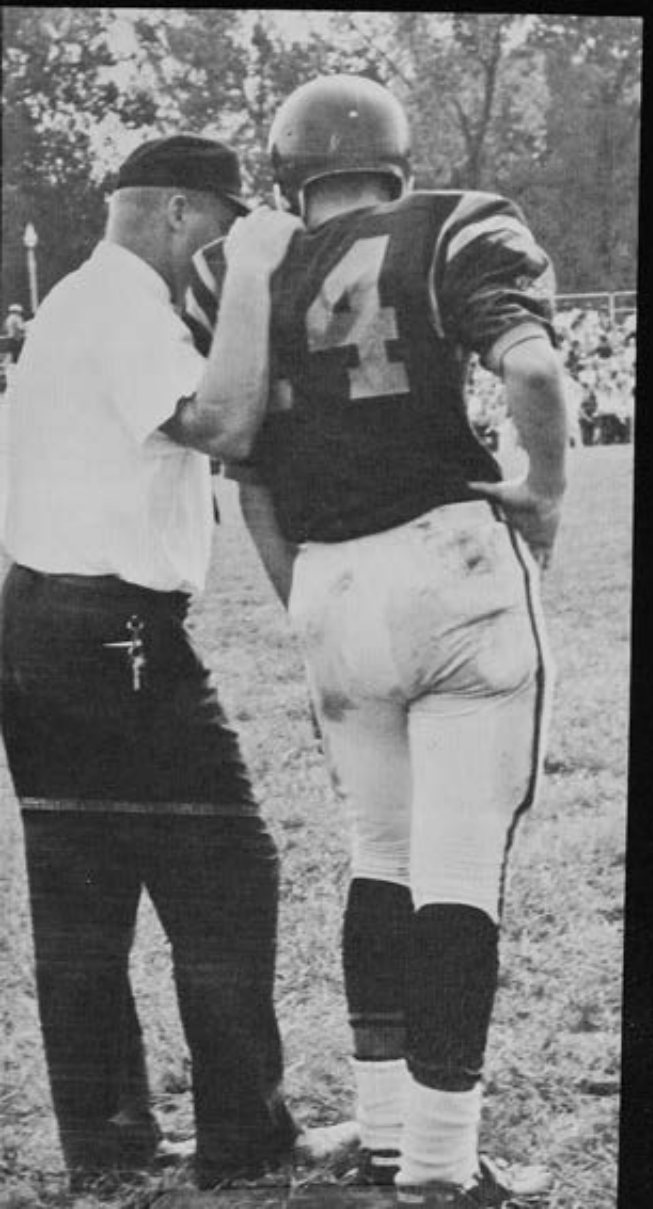

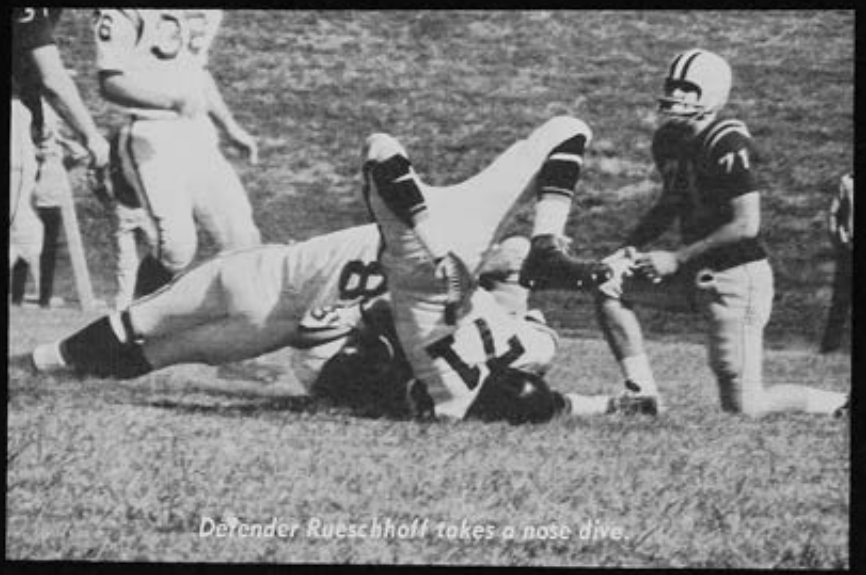

Defender Rueschhoff takes a nose dive.

Rolfes takes the prey as Griffins wing in.

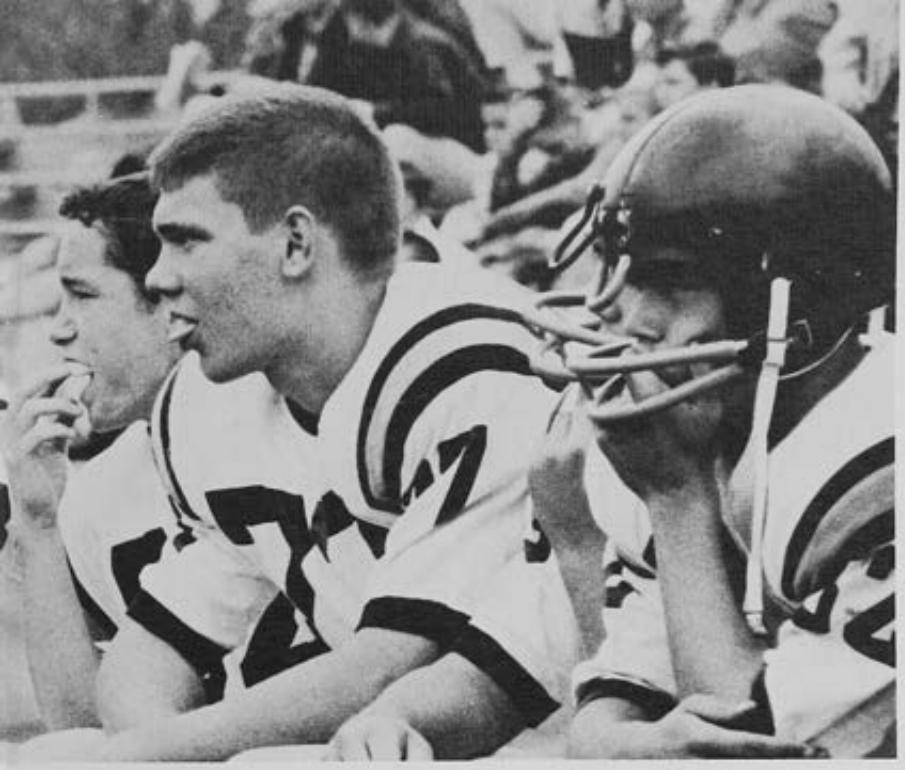

Golden Griffin!

The Griffins' team spirit:
Together they pray, play, and . .

. . . SLAY THEIR OPPONENTS.

A WELL-BALANCED SEASON

The scoreboard reading (at the C.B.C. game) summed up the hopes and frustrations of the '64 grid season.

FROSH SOPH MIXER

DANCES

The day of the Junior Ring Dance began with student Mass and blessing of the rings before school. That night juniors and their dates danced to the music of the Escapades. Climaxing the memorable night was the ring presentation. Brother Bommer (at lower right) presented the juniors with their hard sought rings and a congratulatory handshake.
