This year we celebrated the service of five members of the Vianney family. Mr. Don Heeb, Mr. Jim Ebbesmeyer, and Mr. Jerome Boeckman have each served Vianney for twenty-five years. All three have served Vianney in several capacities — from the classroom, to the sports teams, to the daily administrative affairs of Vianney. To these three we wish many more happy years here at Vianney and much success.

Mr. Louise Exler and Mrs. Lucille Knapko have also been of great importance to Vianney. Mrs. Exler has become a familiar figure in the Vianney office. Unfortunately, after twenty-two years of service, Mrs. Exler is leaving us. We wish her well.

Mrs. Knapko has become a familiar figure in the school's cafeteria. She will be well remembered for her work. After thirty years of service, she too will not be returning. We wish her well in the future.

To these five dedicated people we dedicate this book, but we would also like to dedicate it to those who gave their lives during Operation Desert Storm

I told you this would be fun.

SENIORS

Dan Cashion, Brian Raterman, and Brian Hopfinger chill out on field day.

Where are we guys?

Are you sure your Dad said we could do this?

Yes, I did comb my hair.

Would you care to dance?

Spanish exchange students Carlos Arce (top) and Fernando Perela (bottom).

The first day when I came to Vianney I am a little nervous. But the second day I am no nervous because on person he talk to me. The other days I do more friends. More persons come to talk me in the other days. In the different rooms I have much friends. All the friends treat me good. All the days in the school I pass the hours happy because I have friends. All the teachers treat me good. I said thanks to Mr. Martel, to Mr. Furrer, to Mr. Clepper, to Mr. Rhame, to Mr. Hanau, to Mrs. Heeb, to Mr. Francis Dames. All this persons help me in the school.

The house I'm stay when I came to St. Louis. The family treat me very good. Mike the boy in the house treats me very good, all the Saturdays and Sundays he take me to the movie to eat something. He takes me to see stores, to go to the houses of his friends, to know people. He take me to the stadium, to the arch. To do different things all the day. The Vianney soccer team ended the season with a record of 18-2-8. Their only two losses came against Granite City, on the infamous "hand ball goal," and in the heartbreaking defeat against Oakville in Sectionals. The Griffins supplied a strong defense, as well as offense, that included Junior, Josh Klimek who lead the team with 19 goals. John Kluba guarded the nets with 18 wins, including 12 shutouts. Overall, it was an excellent season. Let's do it again next year!

The B-Soccer team finished the year with an overall record of 17-4-1. This record is consistent with last year's record from when they were Freshmen and finished at 12-1-2.

When Coach Hoffmann was asked, "How do you think the season went overall?" His response was, "They were almost perfect. SLUH was the only team that gave us trouble, beating us twice. I think the team played up to the best of their ability."

According to Brad Hansmann, a Freshman on the B-team, he said, "This year was a very good one. We were a very well constructed team with a great coach. We had a very strong defense and midfield line with co-captains Mark Tracy and Brad Snyder commanding the middle."

Tony Savens goes up for a head ball.

Our C-Soccer Team, led by coach Charles Martel, went to a winning record of 13 wins, 2 losses and 3 ties. Along with goal-keepers Tom Ulsas and Casey Klipfel, the defense of Matt Pashia, Brian Boyle, Mike Powell, and Steve Ortwein allowed only 10 goals in 18 games.

When the team's leading scorer and captain Ken Henry was asked how he felt the team would do next year, he replied, "I think the team will be much better next year because we will be more compatible with each other. Plus, Mr. Martel put us together into a solid team."

Our congratulations to the C-Soccer Griffins. We wish you good luck next year.

This year's cross-country team was a very young one. The team lost seven seniors to graduation, leaving only two seniors on this year's varsity squad. This left a large responsibility for the juniors and sophomores.

Sophomore Andy Stevens and Junior Mike Boreasi consistently finished one-two, respectively, for Vianney, with Stevens missing the sophomore record by about 20 seconds. This year's varsity team also included: Jim Schuessler (Sr.), Jeff Lorentz (Sr.), Jeremy Boesch (Jr.), Chris Lubbe (Jr.), Jim Wolf (Jr.), Dave Smith (Jr.), and Bill Mowery (Soph.).

Despite the teams' inexperience, Vianney's runner remained competitive the whole year. The cross-country Grifpins have picked up valuable experience and look forward to next year.

VARSITY FOOTBALL . . .

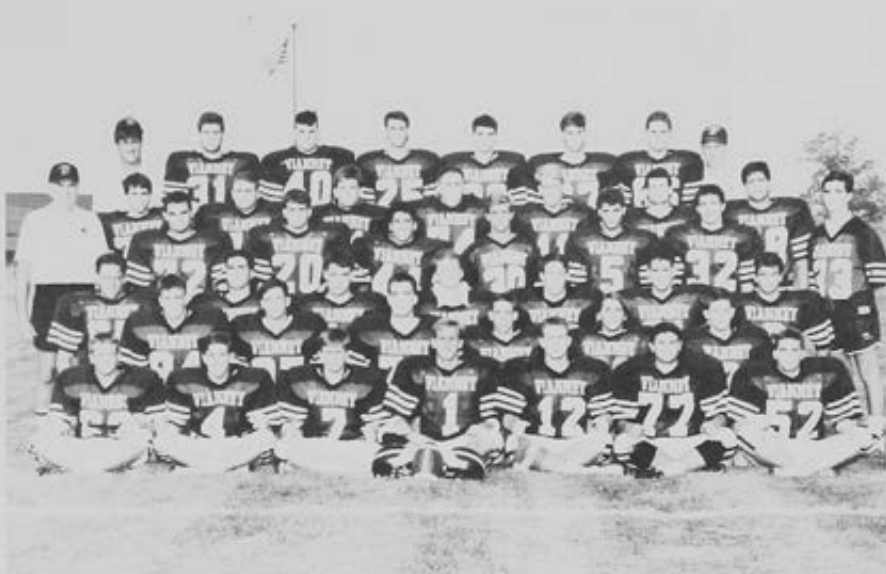

Jason LaChance made it into Vianney record books nine times, including ten TD passes in a career. (ties 3rd most)

This year the Varsity pigskinners finished the year with a 5-5 record. This year marked Coach Don Heeb's 25th year as Head Football Coach — all 25 years he has been .500 or better. The year was filled with ups and downs. Starting off on the wrong foot, they lost to SLUH 21-7, but redeemed themselves the next week with a 31-14 victory over Lafayette.

This was also the year for record keepers. Junior Jeff Kanne set a new record for punt returns in a season with 24 and tied the record for most kickoff returns in a game with 5. Jeff also came close to tying five other Vianney records. Senior Larry Brouk tied the record for most carries in a game — 33 against Chaminade. Gabe Deichmann was voted most improved junior and Brian Gilsinn was voted most improved senior. Dave Dooling received the Football Scholar Athlete Award. Phil Smerek received the MVP.

Vianney had four State qualifiers this year, Senior Dan Bader at 125 lbs. took third, Senior Greg Geiger at 130 lbs. took fourth, Senior Ollie Clerc took fourth at 152 lbs., and Senior Phil Smerek was eliminated after a well-fought match in the heavy-weight class. Although the Varsity squad is losing six seniors this year, next year has a great deal of talent that should fill the gap.

The Golden Glove award was given to Hingle and Klimek for their defense and Jeff Olsen (3-4, 4.31 ERA) was given the Cy Young award for his pitching performance. Tone Martin won the Most Improved player award, hitting .370 this year. This strong hitting team highlighted their season with a 5-1 victory over the #2 ranked DeSmet Spartans. The Griffins will return ten juniors for the 1992 season.

Although their record (8-9) did not show it, the B-team received good pitching from Cliff Politte and Bob Seeber as well as solid hitting from Jim Freivogel and Matt Tiefenbrun. Next year should be a strong one for Griffin baseball.

This year's Varsity Track team had an exciting year. Probably the biggest thrill was the dramatic win against Ladue, in which Vianney took the last event of the meet, the 4 x 400 M Relay, to win the tri meet by one point. The Varsity tracksters also won four of their six dual and tri meets and did well in almost every one of the invitationals. Perhaps one of their biggest victories was winning the Vianney Classic.

Personal congrats go out to Sophomores Jeff Yenzen and Scott Meis who set school records.

VOLLEYBALL

In the words of Mr. Hester of the Mehlville-Oakville Journal, "There are fitness volleyball teams and then there is the Vianney volleyball squad." This year the Varsity team went undefeated in both matches and games, placed first in the Mid-season Tournament at Kirkwood, and placed first in the State Tournament at the end of the season. The Junior Varsity team also performed well this year, finishing the season without losing a match and losing only two games. Here's thanks to a job well done by the coaches and players alike.

The Themeless Wonder

On September 29, 1990, from 8-11 p.m., Vianney held its annual Homecoming Dance in the gymnasium. Although the Griffins had suffered a tough loss the night before to CBC in the homecoming football game, spirits were still high.

The dance had no theme, but was still a high success. STUCO president Mike Mahn called it, "The Themeless Wonder." With music provided by a D.J., the Griffins danced the night away.

At about 9:30 p.m., the Homecoming court was presented. Last year's Queen, Heather Edelman, passed on her crown to Teresa Petry who was escorted by Jason LaChance. Overall, it was a great evening.

FALL PLAY

1990

The 1990-1991 Vianney Theatre season opened with the popular play The Outsiders, based on the novel by S. E. Hinton. This play dramatizes the friendship of two "greasers," Ponyboy and Johnny.

The play was very popular with the audience. Most talked about were the knifing of Bob and the rumble scene. Director Peter Hesed said that he was very pleased with the finished product.

Original music was created by alumnus Steve Neale. Technical manager Jim Dalley and his stage and lighting crew helped make for an enjoyable evening at the Vianney Theatre.

SOCIAL SERVICE PROJECT

Social Service Project in Its 13th Year of Operation.

Brother Roger Bau successfully direct 130 Juniors in 3 weeks of giving service to the community through 31 agencies.

The Junior began their Social Service Project on Monday, February 25 after a short mass at Vianney. Juniors are required to do the Social Service Project as part of graduation.

The purpose of the project was to make the students aware of the problems in our society by working with the less fortunate at places such as retirement homes, outreach centers, sheltered workshops, special schools, and hospitals.

During the three weeks of the project, students were periodically visited at their agencies by a faculty advisor from Vianney. The faculty advisor talked with the students about what they did and discussed any problems the students might have.

The Social Service Project ended on Friday, March 15 and the Juniors returned to school on Monday, March 18.

JUNIOR

RING

CLASS OF 1992

On Thursday, March 18, the Junior class received their class rings. The rings were given out after a mass attended by Juniors and their parents.

On Saturday, the celebration concluded with the Ring Dance. Most (but not all) had a great time dancing to the music of TKO. The dance ended when the night was still young, and many couples continued to entertain themselves deep into the night.

PROM

On Saturday May 4, 1991 members of the Senior class gathered for the annual prom at the Adam's Mark Hotel downtown. Starting at 8 o'clock, the Senior class had an excellent dinner with some expensive soda. Then, giving it all they had, the seniors danced until 11 p.m. to the music of Duya Duya. And after that the night continued as they went on to celebrate elsewhere . . .

COTTON PATCH GOSPEL

This year's musical presentation was Harry Chapin's "Cotton Patch Gospel". Despite the lack of time which was given for this production to take place, it still turned out to be a memorable play. The cast was led by Greg Martin, Mike Messmer, Mike Martin, and Jenny Cavanaugh. The supporting actors and actresses all did a fine job in making "Cotton Patch Gospel" a fine piece of drama and a wonderful experience in the performers' lives.

This play is a milestone in the fact that it was the last to be directed by Mr. Hesed. Although there were some problems now and then in production, Mr. Hesed pulled us through and his dedication and hard work shall not be forgotten. Thank you for all you have done. We'll miss you Mr. Hesed.

DEAR GOD

If you're up there, listen.
Let me know you're there.
I need someone to help me through the bad times.
Let me know you care.

In this world so dark and evil,
Let me know there's hope.
Help me make the world better.
Give me faith to cope.

I'm really having some bad times.
I need you by my side.
To help and lead me through my ways,
To be my heavenly guide.

When I wish upon a star,
It's really you I'm talking to.
You're the only one that really knows me.
I wish I better knew you.

I know you're up there, listen.
I really know you're there.
You've helped me through a bad time.
I really know you care.

— Anne Kohne

THE MOST VITAL THING IN LIFE

When you feel like saying something
That you know you will regret,
Or keenly feel an insult
Not quite easy to forget,
That's the time to curb resentment
And maintain a mental peace,
For when your mind is tranquil
All your ill-thoughts simply cease.

It is easy to be angry
When defrauded or defied,
To be peeved and disappointed
If your wishes are denied;
But to win a worthwhile battle
Over selfishness and spite,
You must learn to keep strict silence
Though you know you're in the right.

So keep your mental balance
When confronted by a foe,
Be it enemy in ambush
Or some danger that you know.
If you are poised and tranquil
When all around is strife,
Be assured that you have mastered
The most vital thing in life.

— Granfield Kleiser

A HYMN TO GOD THE FATHER

Wilt thou forgive that sin where I begun,
Which is my sin though it were done before?
Wilt thou forgive those sins through which I run,
And do them still, though still I do deplore?
When thou hast done, thou hast not done,
For I have more.

Wilt thou forgive that sin by which I won
Others to sin, and made my sin their door?
Wilt thou forgive that sin which I did shun
A year or two, but wallowed in a score?
When thou hast done, thou hast not done,
For I have more.

I have a sin of fear, that when I have spun
My last thread, I shall perish on the shore;
Swear by thyself that at my death thy Sun
Shall shine as it shines now, and heretofore;
And having done that, thou hast done.
I have no more.

— John Donne
