

Job Title: English Teacher

Reports To: English Department Chair

Start Date: August 2021

Marin Academy seeks an experienced English teacher for a full-time position beginning in August of 2021. The MA English Department values a student-centered, inquiry-based approach to teaching that balances content mastery with an emphasis on skill development. In the English Department we believe in:

- cultivating astute, nuanced, and reflective critical thinkers through reading and writing;
- fostering good habits of mind—specifically collaboration, intellectual risk-taking, and creative approaches;
- honoring difference and multiple perspectives to develop cultural competency and an open mind;
- and developing skills for thoughtful and original self-expression.

Ideally, candidates will have at least five years of teaching experience, a degree in English, and a strong desire to teach core ninth or tenth grade courses in addition to upper level English and humanities elective courses. Preferred candidates will have a strong background in the teaching of writing, a demonstrated interest in working collaboratively within and across departments, and the inclination and experience to work in a diverse community focused on issues of equity and social justice.

Marin Academy is situated on a 10-acre campus at the base of the hills of San Rafael, CA in the San Francisco Bay Area. As a 9-12 grade independent, college preparatory high school, we have an enrollment of 440 students with academic talent, interest in the arts and athletics, and a passion for a multitude of issues. Our students come from San Francisco, the East Bay, and Sonoma in addition to Marin County. Marin Academy has a block schedule in which classes meet every other day for 75-minute periods.

Marin Academy's mission statement "asks every individual to think, question, and create in an environment of encouragement and compassion, and challenges each person to accept the responsibilities posed by education in a democratic society." Marin Academy is an equal opportunity employer and welcomes candidates with a progressive and innovative mindset and a commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion in the workplace. Salary and benefits are very competitive.
