

Anti-Racism Resource List

This is a list of anti-racism resources, curated and compiled by Jeanette Jones, upper school social studies teacher at Pembroke Hill. "These are resources that I have read, listened to, watched and collected. Remember, this is just one person's position. This guide is designed to help and not dictate how one should think, react or engage in this process," Jeanette said.

Other quick tips:

Follow BIPOC activists on Twitter or Facebook or Instagram (to learn and not to comment).

Do your research before you lend your voice and use that voice to dismantle the system.

Begin with your own social group, educate yourself, and those closest to you.

DECOLONIZE your mind and your language.
