A Day in the Life of a Snowman

3 grade

Mrs. Pitt

by Eileen Bremer

When the children are asleep and the parents in bed the night starts and they tumble out of the snow bed. They hop around to the town square and wait till all the snow creations are there. They drink hot coco till they melt all the way down to the ground. They jump up in the windows and plop back down until day comes and the sun rises up. They go back to the house all tired and droopy in the place where they were built. Then the children come outside and find their snowman dripped to ice. So they build up a new one and it starts all

If I was a snow girl this is what my life would be like I would be made and then when they put a bow on me, and I would come to life and that's where the fun begins.

I would go ice-skating and go snowboarding and then I would go to a hot beach and sit in three buckets and melt. Finally, when I freeze, I would go jump off Mount Everest and I could because I don't need to be brave so then I would make a snow family and friends and a home and after that I would go swim with the narwals that's what my life would be like if I was a snow girl.

A day in the life of...Nomin

By Mason O'Smen

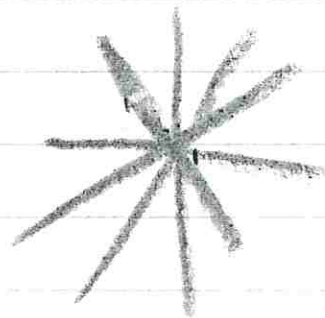

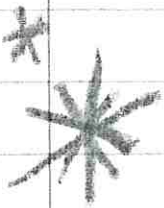

Once upon a time there was a snowman. And his name was snowflake. He was the president of snowville. So he was a king and everyone loved him. But what they didn't know was he was evil. And he had spies. And he also had cameras everywhere in snowville. But snowflake was actually a human dressed up in a snowman costume.

Once there was a snowman. His name was Bob. His family lived in Hawaii. His job is he works at Target. His favorite season is summer. His family has a permafrost so they won't melt. But Bob has a problem, he does not have permafrost. Then Bob took a plane to ask his family were to get permafrost. They told him to get it in Antarctica. In Antarctica he asked the penguins where the permafrost was and they said it was in Astrallia. But it was not in Australlia. So he went to Africa. The elephants led him to a magic monkey who helped him and then Bob had the permafrost! Then Bob went to Hawaii to go and surf and live with his family.

Hum, I wonder what it would be like If I were a snowman?
What if I were a snowman? What would I do? Let's imagine, what I would do is many, and I mean many things.

One thing I would do is I would roll around in snow to make myself bigger. The only reason I would want to, is because what if I was a small snowman. But if I was not a small snowman, I would still do it just to be funny. I would also do it because I want to be taller than my friends!

Another reason It would be fun to be a snowman, is because I could stick out my tongue and catch snowflakes! I would like to do that because than I would be able to take it off my tongue and observe the snowflake (because I'm cold) it's not going to melt! I would also like to catch snowflakes is... I could stick it on my body and always have she/he with me! I would also love to catch snowflakes because than I could see if any of the snowflakes on me are the same.

The last reason I would want to be a snowman is.... To be with kids! Kids are so fun to play with. Because if kids were not around, I would never be alive! Kids are also fun to play with, when they are asleep I always and when I say always I mean it, so as I was saying I always go over to my masters house and wait... finally they wake up and... I'm melted and they have to build me all over again!

That is why I want to be a snow man! An... joey get over here! Coming mom! THE END.

A day in the life of a snowman

By Gavin Harrison

Snowmen during the night sit still. They do nothing, absolutely nothing. They just are three snowballs that little kids stab sticks, coals and carrots into the snow. They want to make a friend, because they are sad and lonely. The snowmen just are German spies from world war 2. They want to win the war against the allies. The snowmen also can snipe the elf on the shelves, because they are very rude. After December the snowmen are destroyed by kids with baseball bats.

The snow Jedi

By: Joslynn Horne

Once upon a time in a galaxy far, far away...

2 snowmen named snowb one Kenobi and snanakin and a young snowwoman, snowshoka were sitting drinking coco when all of the sudden there was a big crash! They went to see what it was, but it was just a snowcat. Then some children came along, and they all froze. The children started kicking, licking, and pushing them to a million pieces! After the children had finished, they tried to resemble each other back together. Ugghhh! I just want to give those children a piece of my mind! Said snowshoka. They are just a pain in my behind! Says Snanakin. Umm this is imbasaring but, where is my behind? Right here, let me help you master says snowshoka. Snowb one Kenobi says Guys chill we must stay calm he says as he is cracking up. Get it stay CHILL? Ha ha very funny master snanakin says very mater of factually. What should we do? You thinking what I am thinking master says snowshoka? Snowball fight? No sorry snowshoka we need to get back to our missions. Ok all right master I will see you soon. So snowshoka parted from snanakin and snowb one Kenobi to complete her separate mission.

Snowb one Kenobi and snanakin are parting ways when snanakin is joining the dark side. I Hate you! You were my brother snanakin I loved you. Snanakin's stick arms and 1 leg had melted from the hot lava near them. Snowb one Kenobi had to leave snanakin because of his choices.

On the ride home Snowb one Kenobi was trying to find a way to tell snowshoka about snanakin. He decided that the best way to break it to her would be to tell her while she was eating his famous Christmas cookies. He went looking for snowshoka to tell her and found her all in a million pieces on the ground. Oh, umm is this a bad time? Oh no master I just need some help getting up. After snowb one Kenobi helped her up she said so what is it you wanted to tell me? Oh, umm here have a Christmas cookie he said handing her the plate and shoving one into her mouth.

Oh, umm ok thank you? Says snowshoka. Anything else you wanted to tell me?

Oh, nothing just I like your Christmas shirt, nice necklace, snanakin turned to the dark side and I got you a new coco mix! Wait what did you say? I liked your shirt and necklace? No after that about snanakin? Oh, umm snanakin turned to the dark side? What why do not joke with me! I am not! Tell me everything then! After 1 hour of questions and answers they went to sleep.

Snanakin was found by darth candy cane and they made him a new mask and he became Darth Cookie...

There once was a snowman that live in a snow cave that know one new about because he was the scariest snowman in Snow Town. He only had one friend that was really brave. One day they decided to go and explore the rest of the snow caves. When they got to the first one they got kind scared but they went in and no one was there. They kept exploring and exploring. Then they found foot prints in the ground so they ran out of the caves so they could be safe. Then they went back to there snow cave and never explored the caves again. The End!

My Documentary

Hi, my name is Bob Lula and I have a secret. I work for Santa, he loves me. I help model for kids' toys and ornaments. Now, Santa needs my help. I can't wait, but Santa wants me to go home to my family. Yay! I'm home. Oh, by the way, Santa wants me on the 24th. I'm so excited that instead of freezing the food I cooked it and that might make me melt for the first time. I know I'm a grown man but eek! So. I'm ready to go again even though it's only the 23rd. Ok. So, I'm told to go to sleep, but I can't. I mean, I went to bed at 12:00 and I've been awake the whole time and it is now 8:00, so I'm really excited. So, now it's time for me to go. I'm saying bye to my wife, my daughter, and my son. I'm so excited. Woohoo!! Now I just found out what Santa wanted me to do. I'm giving gifts to people!

So, I'm back home and I just told my family the news and I hope I get to do it again.

This documentary is now over. Bye.

have great questions for me. "What do I see?"

Hmmm. Oh, Yeah! I see other snow families, houses, pine trees, & snowmobiles. "Do snowmen come to life when your not watching?" Yes of corse we do! O.K. Lets see. "Do we talk, have friends, families, & jobs?" Yes all of us do!!

"What do we do all day?" Some of us stand still or get built. But at night we play together. Bye!!!

SNOWMAN VS Alien By. Elsa Larsen

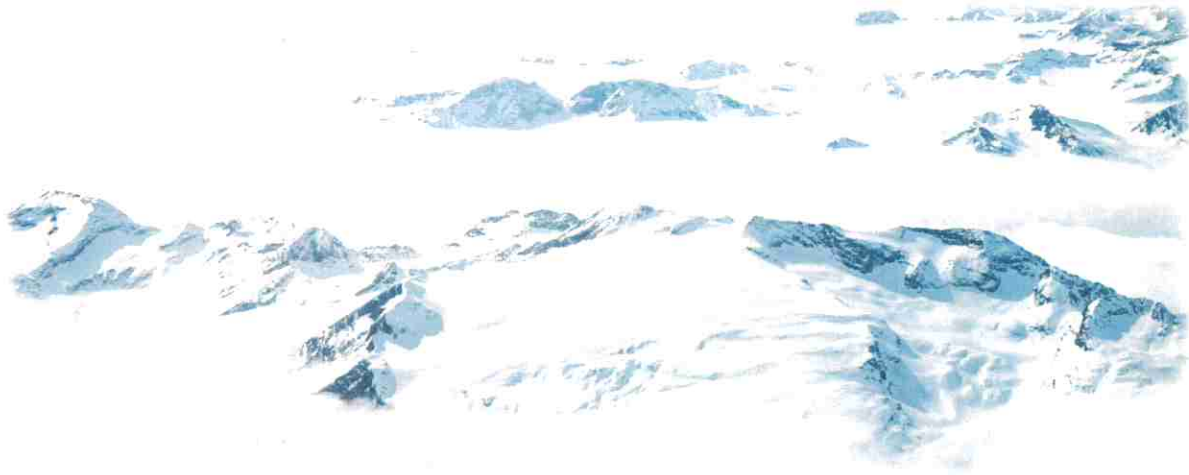

Once there was a snowman that wanted to go to the moon ^{Then} ~~and~~ one day he did. He went to the moon and said "I am the first snowman on the moon!" And then a alien ship came to the moon and then a alien came out of the ship and said, "Get off my moon!" and then the snowman said, "can't we share?" "No way," said the Alien. Let's battle however wins the battle gets the moon." said the Alien then the snowman said, "let's do it!" so they started then they got super tires and on the ground and then the Alien said, "We should share the moon!" so they never found out how to share.

A day in a life of a snowmen

By Drew Wilson

Once upon a time, there was a fat snowman named Billy. Billy was an outcast. He got fired by Santa because he kicked an elf who got smashed by Legos. Since then, he has eating a little too much snow cones. One day he wanted to go back but there was a shield. He teleported to the North Pole and exploded himself thought the shield. Then he traps all the other snowmen and elf while Santa was sleeping. Then Santa came and he "HO HO you are a bad boy, but you can work in the north pole". From then on Billy was a good snowman.

The Day in the Life of a Snowman

Sophia Hancock, Ball, 4th grade

Have you ever wondered what snowmen do during Christmas? Well one day on Christmas eve the snowman all came to life. Mr. Snowshoes was finding a Christmas tree for his wife and kids to decorate. He was searching in the evergreen forest for one when out of one of the trees hopped a snow dog. Mr. Snowshoes was curious of where the dog came from so, he put his branch on the tree and he fell through. There he saw the most perfect tree that would perfectly fit his living room. He brought the tree home and the snow dog for a Christmas present and his family was thrilled. They all decorated it and then in the morning it was full of gifts. The snowmen had a tradition to have a party Christmas morning, so all the snowmen gathered and the partied until noon. Well, you know what to do now, he told his kids. And they stood back on the family's yard and waited for them to come play.

Can you ever imagine being in the life of a snowman for a day? This story will tell you what it will be like if you would be in the life of a snowman.

On a cold snowy day when you would go outside to create a snowman out of all the snow. Just then you saw all the sparkles in the snow and wondered. What would happen next. This was a big question. So, I went inside and thought.

What would happen next? Would I ever know? I thought more and more. Then I thought what it will be like in a snowman for a day. Would it be cold? How long would it be? Would it only be a day? would I melt and die? I kept asking myself questions. Would the questions ever stop coming to my mind?

Then. They stopped all my questions were answered! But in a bad way. I cannot believe that I am in a snowman for a day. It was cold. I never died thou. So on from the day I still hoped I was never in that situation again.

A Magical snowman story

By Annika McKenzie

Grade 5

C. Johnson

Once upon a magical snowman story, not long ago there was a snowman world and when all the little boys and girls were asleep the snowmen came out and had all night to do many things like drink cocoa, have snowball fights, ice skating and much more that we do, but they do the same thing every day (night) and every snowman was ok with it, but one snowman named Jerry. Jerry wanted every day to be different, but it could not be because he was told there if every day were different then something would go wrong with their magic. Then one day Jerry decided that he would change up the days by doing pranks on the other snowmen, such as making them slip on ice, doing unexpected snowball fights, and making their cocoa hot. after he did those things, he was sent to the Kingdom of ices jail. After he got into ice jail, he got one of the hot cocoas and spilled it over the ice, so the ice melted when he almost escaped, when one of the snowguards came and took him back to the ice King. The ice King told Jerry that he would not take away his magic (that makes him able to be alive and talk) if he did act like the other snowmen (the same and good). Jerry could not lie so he got some more of his hot cocoa and spilled it on the snowguards then, Jerry got the King's favorite baseball bat and broke a hole in the ice Castle so he could escape Jerry did not think too much about his plan when until he tripped on the Kings ice dog named frostbite. frostbite chased Jerry all the way to the snow village and back to the ice Kingdom. Jerry thought the if he could climb the biggest mountain then he could be able to sled back down and get ahead of frostbite. Then Jerry thought he lost frostbite but, he saw frostbite ahead of him he knew he was in trouble. He tried to turn around, but he slipped on ice spilled his hot cocoa and slid right into frostbite that knocked the ice King over and then the ice King knocked over one of the snowmen and so on. When Jerry got up, he saw that he got everyone laughing. Then the night was almost over they could not wait for the kids to play with them and build more snowmen. The next night it was different than other nights, Jerry was glad that he made a change in his life and other snowmen's life so that some things do not have to be the same every day. After all that, Jerry turned out to be the clown snowman in his kingdom. If you want to know something else Jerry was able to go to the ice kingdom only if he would show the ice king a funny trick he learned.

A Snowman's Life

By: Henry Dibble

You might wonder I would never want to be a snowman I would be a liquid by the end of the month. You might not realize that when a kid or adult makes a snowman the spirit from the north pole comes into the snowman. You might think well theyre not alive the reason why frosty was able to move around is that was Santa Claus's hat when he was in his younger years, he always carries it around even when he delivers toys and Christmas, so it fell that one day, ironically it fell onto a magician and that was so ironic so when he built frosty that's how he came alive because Santa is the king of Christmas.

Hello, My name Yawnathon. This might sound weird, but I might be a snowman that can't move. "No dip Sherlock." Sorry, that's Johnathon he kicks me in the chest and hurdles me. I get kicked in the chest everyday it's fun. Some people knock me down, they are very nice. If you didn't know I yawn a lot. "Really" Stop Johnathon I am trying to make friends for once. "For once." Okay this is weird but I am a Russian spy and I hide in the Amazon factory. Yes, I said the Amazon factory. They think that Johnathon made me. He is American. (When he doesn't see I will run away.) The next day I ran away.

Being a snowman is a lot cooler than most people think. Most of those so-called humans think, oh, that's a snowman, they sit there all day, and all night. Are you kidding! We do so much more then you humans! Here, let me give you a visual, here is how one simple day goes for me...

First, it's a lot more fun to be a snowman then a tiny piece of water vapor in a cloud. Ok, now on to my day, usually you have to be built by someone before doing anything. Then you do whatever you want! Ok, ok, I know, I'm over exaggerating. You don't get to do whatever you want, but at night, is my Favorite!

Firstly, me and Betty (my friend) go ice skating! Usually we to Farmington Station, but unfortunately, its closed because of COVID-19. So instead, we made our own in some random persons backyard (they blamed their kids for it). It took two weeks to melt! OOoH! And sometimes we go to the movies (of course with masks) and bring our own BlG bowl of popcorn! And sometimes cold hot cocoa!

After the movies, we then like to go sledding! I ALWAYS get the fastest sled! It's sooo fun! Well, that's really all I do because after sledding the sun is usually starting to come up, Welp, Merry Christmas!

A snow man's life

By: Hyrum shaw, grade: 4th, teacher: Cindy miner

I have had a day in the life of a snowman worst day of my life it was just 2 weeks ago and now I hate them so much they are so mean.

I was having a snowball fight with my friends then I suddenly ran into a snowman. The snowman was actually a portal, that explained why it was blue when I looked up I realized when I saw a snowman it was my friends another snowman's we had built they were moving around. I Was suddenly surrounded by a bunch of snowman Warriors at least that is what they look like to me. They took me to an ice Palace that was so big it looked like you could reach the Sky. they took me straight to see the King. The King was the largest snowman I had ever seen. He was so big he could have swallowed me whole. He sent me to the Dungeons. They were made of ice and so cold . I knew I just had to escape. So I came up with the plan when they came to feed me I would stand next to the wall when they came in I would slip out and lock them in. So that is what I did I went back and found the snowman I traveled through it and back to my home world. From that day on I never built a snowman ever again. This is why I hate snowman so you should never build a snowman .

Christmas, it is a wonderful time of the year for snow. I am the snow imposter. We are doing among us on the polus map. The snow imposter will defeat everybody. First, green is by the trash chute. Shove, and put him in the trash and get rid of it. Then purple, on the lava deck I pushed in. (we are snowmen that ate to many snow cones.) I go to the snow cone section and push a snow cone down yellows back. He freezes and falls over. I will reign supreme! Emergency meeting! Red and blue are still alive. I vote red since he called the meeting. Blue skips and red votes blue. No one was melted. I crawl through the vent and place a heater by blue and he melts. Victory! Now lets play as ink bendy in bendy and the ink machine.
