

Person Specification for Teacher of Design and Technology

	Essential	Desirable
1. Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Qualified Teacher Status 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Graduate • A commitment to further professional development
2. Experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Suitable for an NQT or an experienced teacher • Teaching experience across a broad age and ability range in KS3 and KS4 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Teaching experience of Resistant Materials, Engineering, Product Design • Teaching a range of D&T disciplines in KS3
3. Knowledge	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sound knowledge of National Curriculum for Design and Technology • Knowledge of new GCSE and vocational qualifications within in D&T for KS4 • Up to date health and safety knowledge 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Experience of teaching at KS5 • Knowledge of A' Level/Level 3 specifications
4. Skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Excellent classroom management skills • Ability to enthuse students • Effective lesson planning • Ability to use a range of teaching and learning styles • Ability to pace lessons appropriately • Ability to use assessments to improve students' learning • High level practical skills in Design and Technology activities. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Certified competence in Design and Technology core H&S standards – DATA accredited. • Food hygiene certificate. • Practical experience in Resistant Materials/Engineering/Product Design
5. Other Requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Good working relationships with other members of staff • High expectations of students • A willingness to act as a tutor to support the pastoral system 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Commitment to advancing career within Design and Technology. • Enthusiasm to support the College's extra-curricular activities programme.