The C.E.S. Representative Council does not exist between meetings. Council members have no authority except at council meetings or when discharging an assignment made by the council. Motions duly adopted by majority vote become the expressed will of the council as a whole regardless of the existence of a minority vote.

Confidential Matters

The member shall not discuss confidential council business outside board meetings.

Section B

Public Statements

Publicity relative to council action shall be released only by the council president or the delegated agent of the council.

Section C

Council-Related Responsibilities

A council member shall advise a person with a complaint to discuss his/her complaint first with the professional staff involved. If unable to reach a satisfactory understanding in this manner, the person may refer his/her complaint to the council through the executive director.

Unauthorized Staff Requests

If an individual council member is approached by an employee with a complaint or request, the member shall refer the employee to the administrative staff.

Section C1B

Other Committees

Standing Committee

The standing committee of the council shall be the finance committee (comprised of the Executive Director, Chief Financial and Operations Officer and Representative Council members.) All committee members shall be appointed by the president and approved by the council, and the president shall be an ex officio member.

The duties of the committee shall be outlined at the time of appointment.

Special Committees/Advisory Committees

The president of the council shall appoint, with approval by the council, temporary and special committees as may be deemed necessary or advisable by the council and the president shall be an ex officio member of each committee.

The duties of the committee shall be outlined at the time of appointment, and the committee shall be considered dissolved when its final report has been made to the council.

All committees of the council shall follow the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act as required by statute.

Section 2A

Orientation of Council Members

The council and the administrative staff shall help each new member to understand the council's functions, policies and procedures, and operation of the agency. The following methods shall be employed:

1. The incoming member shall be given selected materials on the function of the agency.
2. Upon appointment by the LEA, the new member shall be provided with a copy of the C.E.S. Constitution, the Council's Policies and Bylaws, Administrative regulations, and copies of pertinent materials developed by the council and agency.
3. The president of the council (or the president's designee) and the executive director shall be responsible for the orientation of the new member.

Council members may be reimbursed, consistent with agency procedures, for expenses incurred while conducting authorized council business.

Section 2C

Conflict of Interest

No member of the council or member of his/her immediate family shall have an interest in any contract with the agency, unless such interest is specifically permitted by statute.

“Interest” shall mean pecuniary or material benefit accruing to a council member or his/her relatives resulting from a contractual relationship with the agency.

No member of the council may be employed for compensation by the agency. If a council member is employed by the agency, the office to which he or she was appointed shall become vacant.

Section 3A1

Formulation, Adoption, Amendment of Policies

Policy proposals and suggested amendments to or revisions of existing policies shall be submitted to all members of the council by the executive director in writing prior to a regularly scheduled council meeting in which such proposed policies, amendments, or revisions thereof should be read and discussed.

Policies will be adopted or amended after consideration at two meetings of the council. The agenda and minutes shall be marked to indicate policy matters.

The formal adoption of policies shall be by a two-thirds majority vote of all member districts present and the action shall be recorded in the minutes of the council. Only those written statements so adopted and so recorded shall be regarded as official policy.

Adoption and amendment of such council-adopted regulations shall be by the same procedure as that specified for policies in Formulation, Adoption, and Amendment of Policies procedure.
