Project VOICE is proud to present a special live performance with two world-renowned spoken word poets, Sarah Kay and Phil Kaye. The duo has collectively performed in 30 countries on stages from TED Talks to the Museum of Modern Art (MoMA) and garnered over 20 million views online. Their most recent poetry books have both been Amazon bestsellers: All Our Wild Wonder, by Sarah Kay, and Date & Time, by Phil Kaye. Their work was featured in Uniqlo's "Poetry Beyond the Page" artist series and sold in stores around the world.

For audiences who are new to the medium, this performance is the perfect introduction to the magic of Spoken Word Poetry, but for long-time Spoken Word fans, this show promises to surprise and reinvigorate a love of the art. Armed with only a microphone, award-winning Project VOICE performers are "champions of vulnerability, cheerleaders for the unexpected, and ruthless flashlights for all your heart's nooks and crannies."
