Land Acknowledgement

We begin by acknowledging that we are on the ancestral land stewarded since time immemorial by the Salish peoples of the Duwamish, Green, White, Cedar and Upper Puyallup Rivers, many of these giving birth to the contemporary citizens of the Muckleshoot Indian Tribe. We honor and give thanks that we are able to collectively engage and converse in their sacred homelands about the future of teaching and caring for our sacred children and youth.

Purpose and History

What is African American Family Involvement Day?

- Established in 1995 and inspired by the Million Man March
- Promote African American family involvement in their children's education
- Promote and provide strategies for African American families to take full advantage of the educational system and develop partnerships between business, school and home
- Create a national network on state and local levels
- Here at McMicken, we also see a connection to our Family Advisory Council and SPEB in supporting ALL families to advocate for their children's educational success.

Family Input

We want to hear from you!

1. How are we (McMicken) doing with our Race and Identity work?
 - What is working well?
 - What do we need to improve on?
2. What else do you want to see at McMicken around Race and identity?
3. How can we support your students once we return to school?
