Overview:

- Year Founded: 1947
- The only independent, non-profit American-International school in Rome
- Total Capacity: 630
- Class of 2020: 51 students
- Nationalities: 52+
- Fully accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools and was the first international school to be awarded MSA's prestigious International Credential.

Mission: The American Overseas School of Rome (AOSR) offers the best of an American-International education in a supportive learning environment. We inspire a diverse student body to courageously meet the demands of a changing world through an engaging and creative curriculum.

Who we are: AOSR is a vibrant, open-minded, and caring community from the United States, Italy, and more than fifty countries across the globe. AOSR is proud of its rich Italian heritage and many languages and cultures. We offer a rigorous academic program in Early Childhood to Grade 12 to ensure a successful academic future. Our students are well-prepared to gain admission to universities in the United States, United Kingdom, Italy, and beyond. The school is located north of the historic center of Rome on a beautiful 7-acre campus.

Co-curricular: AOSR participates in the American Schools in Italy League (ASIL) with varsity competition among international and DoDDS schools throughout Italy. Teams for boys and girls include basketball, cross-country, soccer, tennis, volleyball, cheerleading, wrestling and track & field. AOSR also supports programs in the performing arts, student publications, community service, Model UN, Student Council, Global Issues Network, Habitat for Humanity and the National, French, Italian and Spanish Honor Societies.
