4. Current Data Review and Discussion of School Improvement Goals for SY2022

Deanne Kapetanov shared three ideas for goals for next year. The first is to help students who are not on track for graduation. Students' academics are taking a hit due to COVID. Proposed goal for next year is helping Sophomores and Juniors. Credit recovery classes, math lab helping Secondary 2 math classes, English Language Learner (ELL) study skill classes, summer blitz 2 week with a teacher for students who need credit makeup.

The second proposed goal addresses graduation rates. The third proposed goal includes working on students earning a Certificate of Completion and to increase the numbers of CTE pathways completers.

5. Learner Profile Discussion- Davis School District CTE Director Jay Welk

6. Comprehensive Guidance Report:

2nd semester class changes close to 700 changes. Junior group CCRs and Junior individual CCRs in February. Junior ACT preparation – logistics

& accommodations. Davis Connect enrollment/unenrollment and scheduling Quest recovery credit review. Hallway activities focusing on growth mindset. Chocolate Chips & scholarships focusing on seniors and then juniors/sophomores. Junior Higher Ed day coming up end of February (virtual)

Finalizing interim review w/USBE. Common App midyear reviews for seniors who applied for college through Common App. Course requests for 2021-2022 school year for all grade levels including visits to all junior highs. PSAT end of January. High need for mental and emotional support of our students we are seeing a huge increase.

7. PTSA President Report: Thursday is battle of the bands. Reflections went well. Working with the clubs on wellness week. Bringing treats in each Wednesday for teachers.

Motioned to adjourn by Trulie Farley, Kelcey Tupuola seconded the motion.
