

IB Diploma Subject Grid 2021-23 (Provisional February 2021)

Subjects are organized according to the IB Diploma subject groups. IB students should select one subject from each of the six columns, choosing 3 subjects at Higher Level (HL) and 3 at Standard Level (SL).

Subjects in the same vertical column are taught at the same time, hence only one subject from each column can be chosen

NB

For timetable reasons, selecting HL Mathematics with HL English is not possible.

* Classical Greek HL/SL Psychology HL/SL: the placement of these might be flexible

+Music and Computer Science may only be offered if a sufficient number of students choose it

All students must choose Mathematics at either HL or SL. For SL, common core courses will run before students decide on one of two options: Applications & Interpretation (AI) or Analysis & Approaches (AA).

HL students will follow the Analysis and Approaches (AA) course. AI HL may be available depending upon demand.

German students wishing to comply with KMK regulations should confirm with their local authority, but they will need to take Mathematics OR Bio/Chem/Phys at HL. They should take German A Lang & Lit HL and English A Lit SL at Oakham, but do not need to take another language (though possible). They may choose either option of Maths at SL provided that there is a science at HL and university options have been checked. All subjects listed above in group 3 are accepted.
