

Hanford Elementary School District

Hanford Elementary School District is located in Hanford, California. Hanford is in the heart of California's San Joaquin Valley where agriculture is the primary industry. The population of Hanford is 54,950. Hanford residents make $8,480 less than the state's median earnings, with 19.5% of the population living below the poverty line.

Hanford Elementary School District is comprised of eight elementary schools, two junior high schools, one magnet school, and one community day school. The district's enrollment in 2020-2021 was approximately 5,690. The district's percentage of foster youth, English learners, and low-income students is approximately 80%. The district has the following student groups: African American 4.6%, Asian, Filipino 16%, Hispanic 76.3%, White 13.9%, Two or More Races 2.8%, Socioeconomically Disadvantaged, English Learners, Students with Disabilities, Foster Youth, Homeless. The district participates in the National School Lunch Program Community Eligibility Provision, which means all students are provided with free breakfast and lunch. Of the district's 273 teachers, 20 participate in the Induction program to earn a clear multiple or single subject credential and of the 24 site managers, 5 participate in the CASC Induction program to earn a Clear Administrative Service Clear credential.

The Hanford Elementary School District serves all students by providing them with the academic, social, and leadership support necessary to become individuals who achieve academically, who respect basic cultural values, who demonstrate ethical behavior including respect for others, and who value personal integrity, responsibility, and accountability.