

HONEY DEW LIBRARY

Library Newsletter

In this issue:

- What are we learning in library?
- Check out our new books and links on Follett Destiny Discover
- Supplies and Materials pick up for library lessons

What Are We Learning in Library?

This month in library, we will learn about important women in history who contributed to and play an important role in the history of Math and Science, in the history of Art, and as innovators and leaders.

Check Out Our New links and Books on Follett Destiny Discover Online Library Catalog

Please visit the library and access our online resources. All interactive and lightbox books are multiuser books that do not require checkout. This year we've added many titles to our ebook, interactive and lightbox books. To access the online catalog:

- Login in to the RSD portal.
- Click on the Follett Destiny Library Link.

*Life's persistent and urgent question is ,
"what are you doing for others?"*

Dr. Martin Luther King

All ebooks, Interactive books, and light box books are available to explore and read.

March 5th Distribution of Materials

Please pick art materials important to our library lessons on famous women painters, and our lessons on space and flight. Students will need scissors and tape, glue and colored construction paper. Students will also need typing paper, colored pencils and or crayons.

Library Corner

For any questions or help with accessing library resources online, please contact me at Karmonda.pearson@rentonschools.us.

Thank you!

Karmonda Pearson

Honey Dew Librarian

