III. Council Business: Review School Plan and Budget (Tiffany Midgley)

- a) Revision of the 2020-2021 plan. Due to a smaller than expected enrollment, we did not spend the projected amount on teacher productivities that we planned for. We will reallocate these funds to support our goals.
 - i) Motion to approve revisions to the 2020-2021 plan: Vote was unanimous to approve.
- b) Review proposed goals and spending for the 2021-2022 year. We will discuss the following plans and programs:
 - i) Teacher and Student Success Plan (TSSP)-Formally the SIP or School Improvement Plan. Council approves this plan and refers to the plan as they develop the LAND Trust Program.
 - ii) LAND Trust Program- Council helps develop the plan for LAND Trust spending (based on TSSP goals) and approves the plan.
 - iii) Teacher and Student Success Act (TSSA)- Council is asked to review the plan, does not have to approve.
 - iv) Proposed plans will be shared with the JSSC and Faculty during March. Any revisions will be shared with the Community Council at our next meeting (April 6, 2021). The proposed plan will then be voted on by Council members.
