Dear Gull Lake Community Schools Families,

As we continue to celebrate “March Is Reading Month”, many exciting upgrades to our facilities have been happening quietly behind the scenes. Our teaching and learning spaces have been a primary focus of the GLCS Capital Bond Project, and we are preparing an update for families that will come out in the March edition of The Communicator.

As we approach the summer months, our campus will be bustling with additional construction activity and coordination of all the contractors involved. Your building administrators will keep you informed with any relevant details that might impact access to individual building sites, and any disruptions will be held to a minimum. The good work continues!

District Highlight:

The Gull Lake Area Rotary Club volunteers are adding their voices and friendly faces to our K-2 Read Aloud program. Every week, Rotary donates a book to the Richland Library in honor of guest presenters. Judi Brown and Karen McConnell are organizing volunteers by appointment.

Rotarians will read and record these donated books so that our families can enjoy even more quality titles online. It’s great to have GLARC members so dedicated to furthering literacy skills in our school community!

Enjoy the sunshine and GO GULL LAKE!
