Committee Updates:

Project Cornerstone (Jennifer Galang & Marjorie Schmidt)

SEL: Doing well given the circumstances. Have done 3 modules at this point. The next module will be on stress and will touch on suicide as it relates to recognizing the emotions in themselves and their friends and how to get support. The Feb module will focus on "Me & You" which will touch on bias and stereotypes. Marjorie is working with Patrick to approve the letter for parents to opt out for the Jan presentation.

Marjorie will be reading for 8th grade class for the next module to fill-in for Jen.

ABC: Jennifer will send out the materials next week.

Room Parents (Donna Velasquez)

Hyon Chu asked if the RP can get a list of upcoming events/activities related to RP's responsibilities (i.e., Teacher's Appreciation day). Marjorie requested if we could get some more instructions on some guidelines on what we can do and not do for teacher's appreciation day.

Budget Update (Melissa Altknecht & Cappy Myers)

Brought in a little money from the spirit wear campaign. Possibly waiting for a check from Walmart from Fun run.

Principal Update (Mr. Buchser)

97% attendance. 100% no late, overdue, or incomplete IEP's.

Construction update: entire school will be painted outside and parts of inside, portables will be painted as well (1st and 2nd classroom). Portion of the music room will be speech and reading intervention. Lower pod will be our new stage; this work will happen this fall. New building will be for 3rd, 4th, and 5th grades. PG&E doesn't have a main shut off so in the new phase they school will have the ability to do a quick shut off.

Melissa asked if there is a possibility to have a new H&SC storage in the new construction, Patrick will think through it to see if this is a possibility. Art supply will be moved to the library.

Distance Learning: Information is rapidly changing and thus there are no concrete information at the moment about returning to in-person learning.
