[Mandatory testing order imposed; must test by March 16]

MARCH 14, 2021 HONG KONG – The Harbour School (THS) has announced that the Grove Campus on 332 Ap Lei Chau Bridge Road, has been listed in the gazette with a Mandatory Testing Notice.

This means that any and all persons who were at the Grove campus after February 28th for two hours or more must get tested by Tuesday March 16th, and may not leave the house except to be tested.

This order covers adults and children but does not include anyone who did not set foot on The Grove campus or those who were on The Grove campus for less than two hours. Persons visiting The Garden and/or Harbour Village Campus are not required to test under this notice.

Parents and guardians of students at the school and all staff were informed of the Mandatory Testing Order via email this morning and will host a virtual meeting with all families at school at 10.30AM.
