

All Saints Academy

Position: Middle and Upper School History Teacher

Reporting Line: Reports to Division Head

School Summary: All Saints Academy was founded in 1966 as St. Paul's Episcopal Parish School under Father Gilbertson and Father Sturup of Saint Paul's Episcopal Church. The school did not adopt its current name until 1993, when the middle and upper school portions of the facility were added, extending the grades serviced to grade twelve.

Mission: Inspiring independent thinkers, principled leaders, and humble learners.

Vision: All Saints Academy exemplifies Judeo-Christian values within an Episcopal tradition. We welcome students of all racial, cultural, and religious backgrounds striving to maximize each student's unique potential by instilling a sense of worth that comes with a purpose, direction, commitment, and success.

Position Summary, Essential Duties, and Responsibilities: All Saints Academy, a coeducational day school of 580 students in grades PS2 through 12 in Winter Haven, FL, seeks a dynamic, enthusiastic full-time History instructor. This teacher should be able to teach middle and upper school history courses, up to and including Advanced Placement.

The All Saints Academy History Department empowers students to approach reading and researching primary and secondary source texts with confidence and curiosity. Our vision and practices support a growth mindset by teaching students to value mistakes as opportunities for learning, through practice of a variety of instructional methodologies, including Harkness. Our philosophy focuses on valuing the contributions of each class member, inspires independent and collaborative problem-solving, and makes intentional connections to the world. Candidates must have the desire and ability to develop meaningful and productive relationships with motivated students from diverse backgrounds. This teacher should plan to be part of a data-informed, collaborative humanities department team; and an integral component of students' lives, in the classroom, as a department member, and as an advisor.

Qualified candidates will have a bachelor's degree (or higher) in history or history education.

All Saints Academy students use technology in a variety of ways in every discipline. Use of our learning management system, Blackbaud, participating in the advisory program, and committing to on-going education and innovation are required professional standards. In addition to teaching and advising, All Saints faculty take on supervisory duties, such as club leadership or coaching, as members of a supportive, collaborative learning environment.

AllSaints Academy

Please send a resume and cover letter, including your teaching philosophy, to HR@allsaintsacademy.com.