

DONNA KLEIN JEWISH ACADEMY

Lower School Judaic Studies Teacher 2021-2022

Donna Klein Jewish Academy, an independent non-profit school for children grades Kindergarten through grade 12, is a Jewish community day school serving families from a broad spectrum of Jewish backgrounds and religious practices. The school was founded in 1979 and lives its mission: To educate our children and the greater DKJA community to be knowledgeable and responsible citizens of the world, committed to Jewish values and lifelong learning.

Donna Klein Jewish Academy is seeking an enthusiastic, innovative, and qualified full-time Judaic Studies teacher for the 2021-2022 school year. The appropriate individual will be able to teach a wide array of Jewish topics (TaNaKH, Holidays, Tefillah, Parshiyot), in an innovative community minded manner. Candidates who can teach across multiple topic areas are highly encouraged to apply. Please indicate in your cover letter your content area specialties.

The ideal candidate will be a dynamic and reflective teacher who loves working with elementary aged students both in and out of the classroom. They will have a deep appreciation for diverse communities and will be excited about developing new curricula within a Jewish Community Day School setting. In addition to teaching responsibilities, members of the Judaic Studies faculty are also involved in leading a tefila and planning and execution of Jewish Life programs along with additional opportunities for mentorship and other roles that contribute to the life of the school

Qualified applicants must have an undergraduate or graduate degree in education from an accredited educational institution (must be able to provide transcript); demonstrate commitment to ongoing professional development in the teaching/learning process; be comfortable with the existing technology of the school and expected future enhancements to support instruction; be comfortable working with students of various abilities; bring a positive attitude to the teaching environment and be a team-player among the faculty; and utilize both formal and experiential teaching strategies within the classroom.

To apply please send resume and cover letter to, Andrea Farrar, HR Manager at farrara@dkja.net
