THE POLICY

The Salt Lake City School District Board of Education respects the rights of copyright owners, and is committed to adhering to all federal and state copyright laws and publisher license agreements negotiated by the district. As an educational institution, the district uses a variety of copyrighted works in the classroom to promote learning, discovery, and engagement. All district students, faculty, and staff members are expected to comply with the provisions of copyright law and are responsible for making a good faith determination of whether an intended use of intellectual property is legally permissible. When permission to use copyrighted material is required, that permission must be obtained prior to use of the copyrighted materials. The district's copyright steward(s) will stay informed of any changes to laws related to copyright protection; provide annual training on how to comply with copyright policies and laws; and post reference information on the appropriate use of copyrighted materials.

The purpose of this policy is to guide faculty, staff, and students in the responsible use of copyrighted works, and to build their understanding of fair use rights for teaching, learning, and service activities.

The district will set forth its specific processes for implementing this board policy through the accompanying administrative procedures.
