

RESILIENT

ALI O, OLENTANGY ORANGE HIGH SCHOOL

Ali exhibits a tremendous amount of resiliency in precalculus every day. She is always striving to do her best and never settles for anything less. She is consistently being moved out of her comfort zone with application questions that stretch her thinking, but she continues to persevere. Ali knows when to seek out support, and also when she can learn from her mistakes. She exhibits tremendous self-reflection skills that allow her to reach her maximum learning at all times.
