Special Education Advocacy Services of Luzerne, LLC

- The SEAS of Luzerne advocates to empower parents to develop the most appropriate educational programs for their exceptional student that federal and state regulations allow.
- This organization has evolved from the founder's personal experience as the parent of two children, one with specific learning disability and one with Autism, complex medical and emotional/behavioral challenges.
- Special Education Advocacy Services of Luzerne, LLC provides client-focused services that meet the needs of students who face learning and life challenges. They offer parents and caregivers of children with special needs a resource for understanding what the difficulties are, determining what support may be needed and developing a strategic plan to go about getting it.
- Provides free parent, caregiver, agency and organization presentations/trainings on special education regulations.
- They help parents identify options for assessment, accommodations, and needed services. They value bridging the gap with parents, caregivers and schools and encourage working together in the best interest of understanding a child's strengths and/or weaknesses.
- Counties serviced include but not limited to Luzerne, Wyoming, Lackawanna, Monroe, Carbon, Columbia-Montour, Schuylkill, Union.
