Old Business
4	VIS Feedback and Action Steps	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Kevin shared the Google Document with the team again. Not much new information. Added a few pieces of feedback from parents and teachers. District will make final decision about what K-6 grading will look like. Parent feedback: zoom parent teacher conferences were positive, more convenient for parents. Teachers agreed, students were more engaged, greater participation. Note: last 3-4 weeks have been incredibly challenging. 13 staff members out for Covid quarantine, does not include teachers out for incidental appointments.

New Business

5.	Hybrid Student Survey Data	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Kevin shared hybrid student survey, very positive results. Students enjoy being in school have built relationships, and are very comfortable with Google classroom. 92% reported that the school year has been very positive overall
	Jared Campbell show	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Michele shared that we will be bringing Jared Campbell back for a performance in February. The performance will be open to all remote and hybrid students. His message centers on positive self-talk and growth mindset. He was very well received last time he came to Victor.
	NWEA	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Staci shared that we will be administering the second round of NWEA Map Growth, our universal screening tool, the first week in February. NWEA is adaptive gives us a good understanding of our students' performance. The first round of screening indicated that VIS students performed slightly above national norms.
	Budget	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Kevin shared that the VIS budget and allocations will remain similar for 21-22 and will continue to be based of of VIS enrollment numbers. Funding for classrooms and programs will also remain consistent.
