Dear Catholic School Families,

Our great Catholic schools have been receiving much-deserved attention in the media. Most recently was this wonderful piece on Fox News featuring Cardinal Dolan, Superintendent Michael J. Deegan, and the entire community of the School of the Good Shepherd in Manhattan.

The narrative that Catholic schools have been successfully and safely open since September, is a testament to all of our schools, pastors, principals, teachers, families, and benefactors. You may also be interested to know that Mr. Deegan was recently a guest on national Catholic radio network, Relevant Radio's breakfast show Morning Air, for a great conversation with host John Harper.

Sincerely,

Office of the Superintendent of Schools
Archdiocese of New York
