

Nina Simone

Introduction

Nina Simone is a, pianist, singer, and a civil rights activist.

Nina Simone is most known for her performances and lyrics.

Nina Simone, also broke cultural barriers and helped a lot of lives.

Background

- Nina Simone is from, Tryon North, Carolina.
- Simone became who she is today from playing piano and singing.
- Nina Simone was a lonely child, she loved playing piano that was what she used to connect to people she became a classical pianist, people believed in her gifts and helped her with school of music when she ran out of cash, she played jazz at clubs to support herself.

Career

- Nina started her career at six, when she got older, she start working at night clubs and writing songs.

Greatest achievement

Simone's greatest achievement was helping black people, it infected her life by making her famous and making people happy, it is important because she wanted justice and helped lives. Some other great achievements are playing piano and singing, it helped her support herself.

Family

Simone, parents are, John Divine Waymon, Mary Kate Waymon, and her brother is, Sam Waymon. Her father was a barber and a dry cleaner, and her mother was a Methodist minister. Nina had two husband, their names are, Andy Stroud, and Donald Ross. She had a daughter her name is, Lisa Simone. Nina became who she is today by herself, because her parents died in a car accident when she was little.

This is the end thank you so much for waiting !!!

